"rules" includes forms;

"special resolution" means a resolution decided by a majority in number and three-fourths in value of the creditors present, personally or by proxy, at a meeting of creditors and voting on the resolution;

"trustee" means the trustee in bankruptcy of a debtor's estate.

Acts of bankruptcy.

3.(1) A debtor commits an act of bankruptcy in each of the following cases—

(a) if in Kenya or elsewhere he makes a conveyance or assignment of his property to a trustee or trustees for the benefit of his creditors generally;

(b) if in Kenya or elsewhere he makes a fraudulent conveyance, gift, delivery or transfer of his property, or of any part thereof;

(c) if in Kenya or elsewhere he makes any conveyance or transfer of his property, or of any part thereof, or creates any charge thereon, which would under this or any other Act be void as a fraudulent preference if he were adjudged bankrupt;

(d) if with intent to defeat or delay his creditors he does any of the following things, namely, departs out of Kenya, or being out of Kenya remains out of Kenya, or departs from his dwelling-house, or otherwise absents himself, or begins to keep house;

(e) if execution against him has been levied by seizure of his goods in any civil proceeding in any court, and the goods have been either sold or held by the bailiff for twenty-one days:

Provided that, where an interpleader summons has been taken out in regard to the goods seized, the time elapsing between the date at which the summons is taken out and the date at which the proceedings on the summons are finally disposed of, settled or abandoned shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of twenty-one days;

(f) if he files in the court a declaration of his inability to pay his debts or presents a bankruptcy petition against himself;

(g) if a creditor has obtained a final decree or final order against him for any amount, and, execution thereon not having been stayed, has served on him in Kenya, or, by leave of the court, elsewhere, a bankruptcy notice under this Act, and he does not within seven days after service of the notice, in case the service is effected in Kenya, and in case the service is effected elsewhere then within the time limited in that behalf by the order giving leave to effect the service, either comply with the requirements of the notice or satisfy the court that he has a counter-claim, set-off or cross-demand which equals or exceeds the amount of the decree or sum ordered to be paid, and which he could not set up in the action in which the decree was obtained, or the proceedings in which the order was obtained; and for the purposes of this paragraph and of section 4, any person who is, for the time being, entitled to enforce a final decree or final order shall be deemed to be a creditor who has obtained a final decree or final order;

(h) if the debtor gives notice to any of his creditors that he has suspended, or that he is about to suspend, payment of his debts.

(2) In this Act, except where the context otherwise implies, "a debtor" includes any person, whether domiciled in Kenya or not, who at the time when any act of bankruptcy was done or suffered by him—

(a) was personally present in Kenya; or

(b) ordinarily resided or had a place of residence in Kenya; or

(c) was carrying on business in Kenya personally or by means of an agent or manager; or

(d) was a member of a firm or partnership which carried on business in Kenya, and for the purposes of Part IX includes a person against whom bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating territory and who has property in Kenya.

Bankruptcy notices.

4.A bankruptcy notice under this Act shall be in the prescribed form and shall require the debtor to pay the amount in the decree or sum ordered to be paid in accordance with the terms of the decree or order, or to secure or compound for it to the satisfaction of the creditor or the court, and shall state the consequences of non-compliance with the notice, and shall be served in the prescribed manner:

Provided that a bankruptcy notice—

(i) may specify an agent to act on behalf of the creditor in respect of any payment or other thing required by the notice to be made to, or done to the satisfaction of, the creditor;

(ii) shall not be invalidated by reason only that the sum specified in the notice as the amount due exceeds the amount actually due, unless the debtor within the time allowed for payment gives notice to the creditor that he disputes the validity of the notice on the ground of the misstatement; but, if the debtor does not give such notice, he shall be deemed to have complied with the bankruptcy notice if within the time allowed he takes such steps as would have constituted a compliance with the notice had the actual amount due been correctly specified therein.

Jurisdiction to make receiving order.	5. Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, if a debtor commits an act of bankruptcy the court may, on a bankruptcy petition being presented either by a creditor or by the debtor, make an order, in this Act called a receiving order, for the protection of the estate.
Conditions on which creditor may petition.	6.(1) A creditor shall not be entitled to present a bankruptcy petition against a debtor unless— (a) the debt owing by the debtor to the petitioning creditor, or, if two or more creditors join in the petition, the aggregate amount of debts owing to the several petitioning creditors, amounts to one thousand shillings; and (b) the debt is a liquidated sum, payable either immediately or at some certain future time; and (c) the act of bankruptcy on which the petition is grounded has occurred within three months before the presentation of the petition; and (d) the debtor is domiciled in Kenya, or within a year before the date of the presentation of the petition has ordinarily resided, or had a dwelling-house or place of business, or has carried on business, in Kenya, personally or by means of an agent or manager, or is or within that period has been a member of a firm or partnership of persons which has carried on business in Kenya by means of a partner or partners, or an agent or manager, nor, where a deed of arrangement has been executed, shall a creditor be entitled to present a bankruptcy petition founded on the execution of the deed, or on any other act committed by the debtor in the course or for the purpose of the proceedings preliminary to the execution of the deed, in cases where he is prohibited from so doing by any law for the time being in force relating to deeds of arrangement. (2) If the petitioning creditor is a secured creditor, he must in his petition either state that he is willing to give up his security for the benefit of the creditors in the event of the debtor being adjudged bankrupt or give an estimate of the value of his security; and in the latter case, he may be admitted as a petitioning creditor to the extent of the balance of the debt due to him, after deducting the value so estimated, in the same manner as if he were an unsecured creditor.
Proceedings and order on creditor's petition.	7.(1) A creditor's petition shall be verified by affidavit of the creditor, or of some person on his behalf having knowledge of the facts, and served in the prescribed manner. (2) At the hearing the court shall require proof of the debt of the petitioning creditor, of the service of the petition and of the act of bankruptcy, or, if more than one act of bankruptcy is alleged in the petition, of some one of the alleged acts of bankruptcy, and, if satisfied with the proof, may make a receiving order in pursuance of the petition. (3) If the court is not satisfied with the proof of the petitioning creditors debt, or of the act of bankruptcy, or of the service of the petition, or is satisfied by the debtor that he is able to pay his debts, or that for other sufficient cause no order ought to be made, the court may dismiss the petition.

	(4) When the act of bankruptcy relied on is non-compliance with a bankruptcy notice to pay, secure or compound for a judgment debt, or sum ordered to be paid, the court may stay or dismiss the petition on the ground that an appeal is pending from the judgment or order. (5) Where the debtor appears on the petition and denies that he is indebted to the petitioner, or that he is indebted to such an amount as would justify the petitioner in presenting a petition against him, the court, on such security (if any) being given as the court may require for payment to the petitioner of any debt which may be established against him in due course of law, and of the costs of establishing the debt, may, instead of dismissing the petition, stay all proceedings on the petition for such time as may be required for trial of the question relating to the debt. (6) Where proceedings are stayed the court may, if by reason of the delay caused by the stay of proceedings or for any other cause it thinks just, make a receiving order on the petition of some other creditor, and shall thereupon dismiss, on such terms as it thinks just, the petition in which proceedings have been stayed. (7) A creditor's petition shall not, after presentment, be withdrawn without the leave of the court.
Debtor's petition and order thereon.50 of 1956, s. 2.	8.(1) A debtor's petition shall allege that the debtor is unable to pay his debts, and the presentation thereof shall be deemed an act of bankruptcy without the previous filing by the debtor of any declaration of inability to pay his debts, and the court shall thereupon make a receiving order: Provided that an order shall be refused unless the debtor has filed with the official receiver his statement of affairs prepared in accordance with the provisions of section 16. (2) A debtors petition shall not, after presentation, be withdrawn without the leave of the court.
Effect of receiving order.	9.(1) On the making of a receiving order the official receiver shall be thereby constituted receiver of the property of the debtor, and thereafter, except as directed by this Act, no creditor to whom the debtor is indebted in respect of any debt provable in bankruptcy shall have any remedy against the property or person of the debtor in respect of the debt, or shall commence any action or other legal proceedings, except with the leave of the court and on such terms as the court may impose. (2) This section shall not affect the power of a secured creditor to realize or otherwise deal with his security in the same manner as he would have been entitled to realize or deal with it if this section had not been passed.
Power to appoint interim receiver.	10.The court may, if it is shown to be necessary for the protection of the estate, at any time after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, and before a receiving order is made, appoint the official receiver to be interim receiver of the property of the debtor, or of any part thereof, and direct him to take immediate possession thereof or of any part thereof.
Power to stay pending proceedings.	11.(1) The court may, at any time after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, stay any action, execution or other legal process against the property or person of the debtor, and any court in which proceedings are pending

	against a debtor may, on proof that a bankruptcy petition has been presented by or against the debtor, either stay the proceedings or allow them to continue on such terms as it may think just. (2) Where the court makes an order staying any action or proceeding, or staying proceedings generally, the order may be served by sending a copy thereof, under the seal of the court, by post to the address for service of the plaintiff or other party prosecuting the proceeding.
Power to appoint special manager.	12.(1) The official receiver of a debtor's estate may, on the application of any creditor or creditors, and if satisfied that the nature of the debtor's estate or business or the interests of the creditors generally require the appointment of a special manager of the estate or business other than the official receiver, appoint a manager thereof accordingly to act until a trustee is appointed, and with such powers (including any of the powers of a receiver) as may be entrusted to him by the official receiver. (2) The special manager shall give security and account in such manner as the official receiver may direct. (3) The special manager shall receive such remuneration as the creditors may, by resolution at an ordinary meeting, determine, or, in default of any such resolution, as may be prescribed.
Advertisement of receiving order.	13. Notice of every receiving order, stating the name, residential and business addresses and description of the debtor, the date of the order, the court by which the order is made and the date of the petition, shall be published in the Gazette in the prescribed manner.
First meeting of creditors.	14. As soon as may be after the making of a receiving order against a debtor, a general meeting of his creditors (in this Act referred to as the first meeting of creditors) shall be held for the purpose of considering whether a proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement shall be accepted, or whether it is expedient that the debtor shall be adjudged bankrupt, and generally as to the mode of dealing with the debtor's property.
Meetings to be governed by rules.	15. With respect to the summoning of and proceedings at the first and other meetings of creditors, the rules in the First Schedule shall be observed.
Debtor's statement of affairs. 50 of 1956, s.3.	16.(1) The debtor shall make out and submit to the official receiver a statement of and in relation to his affairs in the prescribed form, verified by affidavit, and showing the particulars of the debtor's assets, debts and liabilities, the names, residences and occupations of his creditors, the securities held by them respectively, the dates when the securities were respectively given, and such further or other information as may be prescribed or as the official receiver may require. (2) The statement shall be so submitted— (a) before, but not more than three days before, the date of the presentation of the debtor's petition, and, upon such submission, the official receiver shall certify to the court under his hand that the statement has been duly submitted to him; (b) within fourteen days of the date of the receiving order made on the petition of a creditor, but the official receiver may, for special reasons, extend the time.

(3) In the case of a creditor's petition, if the debtor fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirements of this section he shall be guilty of an offence and the court may, on the application of the official receiver or of any creditor, adjudge him bankrupt and the debtor shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, be guilty of a contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

(4) Any person stating himself in writing to be a creditor of the bankrupt may, personally or by agent, inspect the statement at all reasonable times, and take any copy thereof or extract therefrom, but any person untruthfully so stating himself to be a creditor shall be guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be punishable accordingly on the application of the trustee or official receiver.

Public examination of debtor. 50 of 1956,s.4.

17.(1) Where the court makes a receiving order, it shall, save as provided in this Act, hold a public sitting on a day to be appointed by the court, for the examination of the debtor, and the debtor shall attend thereat and shall be examined as to his conduct, dealings and property.

(2) The examination shall be held as soon as conveniently may be after the expiration of the time for the submission of the debtor's statement of affairs.

(3) The court may adjourn the examination from time to time.

(4) A creditor who has tendered a proof, or his representative authorized in writing, may question the debtor concerning his affairs and the causes of his failure.

(5) The official receiver shall take part in the examination of the debtor, and for the purpose may employ an advocate if he so desires.

(6) If a trustee is appointed before the conclusion of the examination he may take part therein.

(7) The court may put such questions to the debtor as it may think expedient.

(8) The debtor shall be examined upon oath, and it shall be his duty to answer all such questions as the court may put or allow to be put to him; such notes of the examination as the court thinks proper shall be taken down in writing and shall be read over either to or by the debtor and signed by him and may thereafter, save as provided in this Act, be used in evidence against him; and they shall also be open to the inspection of any creditor at all reasonable times.

(9) If a debtor or witness, on being examined before a judge, refuses to answer or does not answer to the satisfaction of the judge any question which he may allow to be put, the debtor or witness shall be guilty of a contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

(10) When the court is of opinion that the affairs of the debtor have been sufficiently investigated, it shall by order declare that his examination is concluded, but the order shall not be made until after the day appointed for the first meeting of creditors.

(11) Where the debtor is a lunatic or suffers from any such mental or physical affliction or disability as in the opinion of the court makes him unfit to attend his public examination, the court may make an order dispensing with the examination or directing that the debtor be examined on such terms, in such manner and at such place as to the court seems expedient.

(12) The advocate of the debtor may attend the examination but shall not question the debtor or address the court.

Compositions and schemes of arrangement.

18.(1) Where a debtor intends to make a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of his debts, or a proposal for a scheme of arrangement of his affairs, he shall, within four days of submitting his statement of affairs, or within such time thereafter as the official receiver may fix, lodge with the official receiver a proposal in writing, signed by him or by an agent specifically authorized by him for the purpose, embodying the terms of the composition or scheme which he is desirous of submitting for the consideration of his creditors, and setting out particulars of any sureties or securities proposed.

(2) In such case the official receiver shall hold a meeting of creditors, before the public examination of the debtor is concluded, and send to each creditor, before the meeting, a copy of the debtor's proposal, with a report thereon; and, if at that meeting a majority in number and three-fourths in value of all the creditors who have proved resolve to accept the proposal, it shall be deemed to be duly accepted by the creditors, and when approved by the court shall be binding on all the creditors.

(3) The debtor may at the meeting amend the terms of his proposal if the amendment is, in the opinion of the official receiver, calculated to benefit the general body of creditors.

(4) A creditor who has proved his debt may assent to or dissent from the proposal by a letter, in the prescribed form, addressed to the official receiver, so as to be received by him not later than the day preceding the meeting, and any such assent or dissent shall have effect as if the creditor had been present and had voted at the meeting.

(5) The debtor or the official receiver may, after the proposal is accepted by the creditors, apply to the court to approve it, and notice of the time appointed for hearing the application shall be given to each creditor who has proved.

(6) The application shall not be heard until after the conclusion of the public examination of the debtor; and any creditor who has proved may be heard by the court in opposition to the application, notwithstanding that he may at a meeting of creditors have voted for the acceptance of the proposal.

(7) For the purpose of approving a composition or scheme by joint debtors, the court may, if it thinks fit, and on the report of the official receiver that it is expedient so to do, dispense with the public examination of one of the joint debtors if he is unavoidably prevented from attending the examination by illness or absence from Kenya.

(8) The court shall, before approving the proposal, hear a report of the official receiver as to the terms thereof, and as to the conduct of the debtor, and any objections which may be made by or on behalf of any creditor.

(9) If the court is of opinion that the terms of the proposal are not reasonable, or are not calculated to benefit the general body of creditors, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal.

(10) If any facts are proved on proof of which the court would be required either to refuse, suspend or attach conditions to the debtor's discharge, were he adjudged bankrupt, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal unless it provides reasonable security for the payment of not less than five shillings in the pound on all the unsecured debts provable against the debtor's estate.

(11) In any other case the court may either approve or refuse to approve the proposal.

(12) If the court approves the proposal, the approval may be testified by the seal of the court being attached to the instrument containing the terms of the proposed composition or scheme, or by the terms being embodied in an order of the court.

(13) A composition or scheme accepted and approved in pursuance of this section shall be binding on all the creditors so far as relates to any debts due to them from the debtor or provable in bankruptcy, but shall not release the debtor from any liability under a judgment against him in an action for seduction or affiliation, or under a judgment against him as a co-respondent in a matrimonial cause, except to such an extent and under such conditions as the court expressly orders in respect of that liability.

(14) A certificate of the official receiver that a composition or scheme has been duly accepted and approved shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive as to its validity.

(15) The provisions of a composition or scheme under this section may be enforced by the court on application by any person interested, and any disobedience of an order of the court made on the application shall be deemed a contempt of court.

(16) If default is made in payment of any instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme, or if it appears to the court on satisfactory evidence that the composition or scheme cannot, in consequence of legal difficulties, or for any sufficient cause, proceed without injustice or undue delay to the creditors or to the debtor, or that the approval of the court was obtained by fraud, the court may on application by the official receiver or the trustee or by any creditor, adjudge the debtor bankrupt and annul the composition or scheme, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made, or thing duly done, under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme; and where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt under this subsection, any debt provable in other respects which has been contracted before the adjudication shall be provable in the bankruptcy.

(17) If under or in pursuance of a composition or scheme a trustee is appointed to administer the debtor's property or manage his business, or to distribute the composition, section 28 and Part V shall apply as if the trustee were a trustee in a bankruptcy, and as if the terms "bankruptcy", "bankrupt" and "order of adjudication" included respectively a composition or scheme of arrangement, a compounding or arranging debtor and an order approving the composition or scheme.

(18) Part III shall, so far as the nature of the case and the terms of the composition or scheme admit, apply thereto, the same interpretation being given to the words "trustee", "bankruptcy", "bankrupt" and "order of adjudication" as in subsection (17).

(19) No composition or scheme shall be approved by the court which does not provide for the payment in priority to other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt.

(20) The acceptance by a creditor of a composition or scheme shall not release any person who under this Act would not be released by an order of discharge if the debtor has been adjudged bankrupt.

Effect of composition or scheme.	19. Notwithstanding the acceptance and approval of a composition or scheme, the composition or scheme shall not be binding on any creditor so far as regards a debt or liability from which, under the provisions of this Act, the debtor would not be released by an order of discharge in bankruptcy, unless the creditor assents to the composition or scheme.
Adjudication of bankruptcy where composition not accepted or approved. of 1956, s. 5	20.(1) Where a receiving order is made against a debtor, then, if the creditors at the first meeting or any adjournment thereof, by ordinary resolution resolve that the debtor be adjudged bankrupt, or pass no resolution, or if the creditors do not meet, or if a composition or scheme is not approved in pursuance of this Act within fourteen days after the conclusion of the examination of the debtor, or such further time as the court may allow, or if the debtor himself with the concurrence of the official receiver consents in writing to be adjudged bankrupt, the court shall adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and thereupon the property of the bankrupt shall become divisible among his creditors, and shall vest in a trustee, and the court shall at the same time specify on the order of adjudication the period at the expiration of which the debtor shall apply for his discharge. (2) Notice of every order adjudging a debtor bankrupt, stating the name, residential and business addresses and description of the bankrupt, and the date of the adjudication, shall be gazetted in the prescribed manner, and the date of the order shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the date of the adjudication.
Appointment of trustee. 50 of 1956, s. 6.	21.(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt, or the creditors have resolved that he be adjudged bankrupt, the creditors may by ordinary resolution appoint some fit person, whether a creditor or not, to fill the office of trustee of the property of the bankrupt; or they may resolve to leave his appointment to the committee of inspection hereinafter mentioned; but a person shall be deemed not fit to act as trustee of the property of a bankrupt where he has been previously removed from the office of trustee of a bankrupt's property for misconduct or neglect of duty. (2) The person so appointed, other than the official receiver, shall give security in manner prescribed to the satisfaction of the court, and the court, if satisfied with the security, shall certify that his appointment has been duly made, unless the court objects to the appointment on the ground that it has not been made in good faith by a majority in value of the creditors voting, or that the person appointed is not fit to act as trustee, or that his connexion with or relation to the bankrupt or his estate or any particular creditor makes it difficult for him to act with impartiality in the interests of the creditors generally. (3) The appointment of a trustee shall take effect as from the date of the certificate. (4) The official receiver may be appointed the trustee by the creditors and in that case there shall be no committee of inspection, unless he so desires, and where there is no committee of inspection the official receiver may do all things which may be done by a trustee with the permission of a committee of inspection; and where the official receiver is so appointed the court, if satisfied that his appointment has been duly made, shall certify the appointment accordingly. (5) If a trustee is not appointed by the creditors within four weeks from the

date of the adjudication, or in the event of there being negotiations for a composition or scheme pending at the expiration of those four weeks, within seven days from the close of those negotiations by the refusal of the creditors to accept, or of the court to approve, the composition or scheme, the official receiver shall report the matter to the court, and thereupon the court shall appoint some fit person to be trustee of the bankrupt's property, and shall certify the appointment:

Provided that the creditors or the committee of inspection (if so authorized by resolution of the creditors) may at any subsequent time appoint a trustee and, on the appointment being made and certified, the person appointed shall become trustee in the place of the person appointed by the court.

(6) When a debtor is adjudged bankrupt after the first meeting of creditors has been held, and a trustee has not been appointed prior to the adjudication, the official receiver shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors for the purpose of appointing a trustee.

Committee of inspection. 50 of 1956,s.7.

22.(1) The creditors qualified to vote may, at their first or any subsequent meeting, by resolution, appoint a committee of inspection for the purpose of superintending the administration of the bankrupt's property by the trustee:

Provided that, if the official receiver has been appointed the trustee by the creditors, the appointment of a committee of inspection shall only be made if the official receiver has previously consented thereto.

(2) The committee of inspection shall consist of not more than five nor less than three persons, possessing one or other of the following qualifications—

(a) that of being a creditor or the holder of a general proxy or general power of attorney from a creditor:

Provided that no creditor and no holder of a general proxy or general power of attorney from a creditor shall be qualified to act as a member of the committee of inspection until the creditor has proved his debt and the proof has been admitted; or

(b) that of being a person to whom a creditor intends to give a general proxy or general power of attorney:

Provided that no such person shall be qualified to act as a member of the committee of inspection until he holds such a proxy or power of attorney, and until the creditor has proved his debt and the proof has been admitted

(3) The committee of inspection shall meet at such times as they shall from time to time appoint, and, failing any appointment, at least once a month; and the trustee or any member of the committee may also call a meeting of the committee as and when he thinks necessary.

(4) The committee may act by a majority of their members present at a meeting, but shall not act unless a majority of the committee are present at the meeting.

(5) Any member of the committee may resign his office by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the trustee.

(6) If a member of the committee becomes bankrupt or compounds or arranges with his creditors, or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the committee, his office shall thereupon become vacant.

	(7) Any member of the committee may be removed by an ordinary resolution at any meeting of creditors of which seven days' notice has been given stating the object of the meeting. (8) On a vacancy occurring in the office of a member of the committee, the trustee shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors for the purpose of filling the vacancy, and the meeting may be resolution appoint another creditor, or other person eligible as above, to fill the vacancy. (9) The continuing members of the committee, provided there be not less than two such continuing members, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; and, where the number of members of the committee of inspection is for the time being less than five, the creditors may increase that number so that it does not exceed five. (10) If there is no committee of inspection, any act or thing or any direction or permission by this Act authorized or required to be done or given by the committee may be done or given by the court or the official receiver on the application of the trustee.
Power to accept composition or scheme after adjudication.	23.(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt the creditors may at any time after the adjudication, by a majority in number and three-fourths in value of all the creditors who have proved, resolve to accept a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of the debts due to them under the bankruptcy or for a scheme of arrangement of the bankrupt's affairs; and thereupon the same proceedings shall be taken and the same consequences shall ensue as in the case of a composition or scheme accepted before adjudication. (2) If the court approves the composition or scheme, it may make an order annulling the bankruptcy and vesting the property of the bankrupt in him or in such other person as the court may appoint, on such terms, and subject to such conditions as the court may declare. (3) If default is made in payment of any instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme, or if it appears to the court that the composition or scheme cannot proceed without injustice or undue delay, or that the approval of the court was obtained by fraud, the court may on application by any person interested adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and annul the composition or scheme, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made, or thing duly done, under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme; and where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt under this subsection all debts provable in other respects which have been contracted before the date of the adjudication shall be provable in the bankruptcy.
Duties of debtor as to discovery and realization of property.	24. (1) Every debtor against whom a receiving order is made shall, unless prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause, attend the first meeting of his creditors, and shall submit to such examination and give such information as the meeting may require. (2) He shall give such inventory of his property, such list of his creditors and debtors, and of the debts due to and from them respectively, submit to such examination in respect of his property or his creditors, attend such other meeting of his creditors, wait at such times on the official receiver, special manager or trustee, execute such powers of attorney, conveyances, deeds and instruments and generally do all such acts and things in relation to his property and the distribution of the proceeds amongst his creditors as may be reasonably required by the official receiver, special manager or trustee, or as

	may be prescribed, or as may be directed by the court by any special order or orders made in reference to any particular case or made on the occasion of any special application by the official receiver, special manager or trustee or any creditor or person interested. (3) He shall, if adjudged bankrupt, aid, to the utmost of his power, in the realization of his property and the distribution of the proceeds amongst his creditors. (4) If a debtor wilfully fails to perform the duties imposed on him by this section, or to deliver up possession of any part of his property which is divisible amongst his creditors under this Act and which is for the time being in his possession or under his control to the official receiver or to the trustee, or to any person authorized by the court to take possession of it, he shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be subject, be guilty of a contempt of court, and may be punished accordingly.
Address and certain particulars to be furnished. 50 of 1956, s.8.	25.(1) every debtor against whom an order of adjudication is made in Kenya shall, so long as the order remains in force, keep the official receiver or trustee, as the case may be, informed of his residential and postal address, and shall submit every three months from the date of the order a return, verified by affidavit, giving full particulars as to his employment, salary, earnings and other income during the preceding three months. (2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence.
Arrest of debtor in certain circumstances.	26.(1) The court may, by warrant addressed to a police officer or prescribed officer of the court, cause a debtor to be arrested, and any books, papers, money and goods in his possession to be seized, and him and them to be safely kept as prescribed until such time as the court may order in any of the following circumstances— (a) if, after a bankruptcy notice has been issued under this Act, or after presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, it appears to the court that there is probable reason for believing that he has absconded or is about to abscond, with a view to avoiding payment of the debt in respect of which the bankruptcy notice was issued, or to avoiding service of a bankruptcy petition, or to avoiding appearance to any such petition, or to avoiding examination in respect of his affairs, or to otherwise avoiding, delaying or embarrassing proceedings in bankruptcy against him; (b) if, after presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, it appears to the court that there is probable cause for believing that he is about to remove his goods with a view to preventing or delaying possession being taken of them by the official receiver or trustee, or that there is probable ground for believing that he has concealed or is about to conceal or destroy any of his goods, or any books, documents or writings which might be of use to his creditors in the course of his bankruptcy; (c) if, after service of a bankruptcy petition on him, or after a receiving order is made against him, he removes any goods in his possession above the value of one hundred shillings, without the leave of the official receiver or trustee; (d) if, without good cause shown, he fails to attend any examination ordered by the court: Provided that no arrest upon a bankruptcy notice shall be valid and protected

	unless the debtor before or at the time of his arrest is served with such bankruptcy notice. (2) No payment or composition made or security given after arrest made under this section shall be exempt from the provisions of this Act relating to fraudulent preferences.
Redirection of debtor's letters.	27. Where a receiving order is made against a debtor, the court, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, may from time to time order that for such time, not exceeding six months, as the court thinks fit, post letters, telegrams, cablegrams and other postal articles, addressed to the debtor at any place or places mentioned in the order for redirection, shall be redirected, sent or delivered by the Postmaster-General, or the officers acting under him, or by any other person in charge of the transmission and receipt of telegrams and cablegrams, to the official receiver, or the trustee, or otherwise as the court directs.
Inquiry as to debtor's conduct, dealings and property.	28.(1) The court may on the application of the official receiver or trustee, at any time after a receiving order has been made against a debtor, summon before it the debtor or his wife, or any person known or suspected to have in his possession any of the estate or effects belonging to the debtor, or supposed to be indebted to the debtor, or any person whom the court may deem capable of giving information respecting the debtor or his dealings or property, and the court may require any such person to produce any documents in his custody or power relating to the debtor or his dealings or property. (2) If any person so summoned, after having been tendered a reasonable sum, refuses to come before the court at the time appointed, or refuses to produce any such documents, having no lawful impediment made known to the court at the time of its sitting and allowed by it, the court may, by warrant, cause him to be apprehended and brought up for examination. (3) The court may examine on oath, either by word of mouth or by written interrogatories, any person so brought before it concerning the debtor or his dealings or property. (4) If any person on examination before the court admits that he is indebted to the debtor, the court may, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, order him to pay to the official receiver or trustee, at such time and in such manner as to the court seems expedient the amount admitted, or any part thereof, either in full discharge of the whole amount in question or not, as the court thinks fit, with or without costs of the examination. (5) If any person on examination before the court admits that he has in his possession any property belonging to the debtor, the court may, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, order him to deliver to the official receiver or trustee such property or any part thereof, at such time, and in such manner, and on such terms, as to the court may seem just. (6) The court may order that any person who, if in Kenya, would be liable to be brought before it under this section shall be examined in any other place out of Kenya.
Bankrupt to apply for discharge within time	29.(1) Where an order of adjudication is made, the bankrupt shall, at the expiration of the period specified by the court, apply to the court for an order of discharge, and the court shall appoint a day for hearing the application, but the application shall not be heard until the public examination of the bankrupt is

specified by court. 50 of

concluded; and an application for an order of discharge shall, except where the court in accordance with rules made under this Act otherwise directs, be heard in open court.

(2) On the hearing of the application the court shall take into consideration a report of the official receiver of Kenya or of any reciprocating territory as to the bankrupt's conduct and affairs (including a report as to the bankrupt's conduct during the proceedings under his bankruptcy), and may either grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge, or suspend the operation of the order for a specified time, or grant an order of discharge subject to any conditions with respect to any earnings or income which may afterwards become due to the bankrupt or with respect of his after acquired property:

Provided that—

(i) where the bankrupt has committed an offence under this Act or any other offence connected with his bankruptcy, whether in Kenya or in any reciprocating territory, or where in any case any of the facts hereinafter mentioned are proved to have occurred either in Kenya or in any reciprocating territory, the court shall either—

(a) refuse the discharge; or

(b) suspend the discharge for such period as the court thinks proper; or

(c) suspend the discharge until the debtor has paid to his creditors such dividend as the court may, in its absolute discretion, think fit; or

(d) require the bankrupt as a condition of his discharge to consent to judgment being entered against him by the official receiver or trustee for any balance or part of any balance of the debts provable under the bankruptcy which is not satisfied at the date of the discharge, such balance or part of any balance of the debts to be paid out of the future earnings or after acquired property of the bankrupt in such manner and subject to such conditions as the court may direct; but execution shall not be issued on the decree without leave of the court, which leave may be given on proof that the bankrupt has since his discharge acquired property or income available towards payment of his debts;

(ii) if at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of any order made under this section the bankrupt satisfies the court that there is no reasonable probability of his being in a position to comply with the terms of that order, the court may modify the terms of the order, or of any substituted order, in such manner and upon such conditions as it may think fit.

(3) The facts hereinbefore referred to are—

(a) that the bankrupt's assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities, unless he satisfies the court that the fact that the assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities has arisen from circumstances for which he cannot justly be held responsible;

(b) that the bankrupt has omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy;

(c) that the bankrupt has continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent;

(d) that the bankrupt has contracted any debt provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting it any reasonable or probable ground of expectation (proof whereof shall lie on him) of being able to pay it;

(e) that the bankrupt has failed to account satisfactorily for any loss of assets or for any deficiency of assets to meet his liabilities;

(f) that the bankrupt has brought on, or contributed to, his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations, or by unjustifiable extravagance in living, or by gambling, or by culpable neglect of his business affairs;

(g) that the bankrupt has put any of his creditors to unnecessary expense by a frivolous or vexatious defence to any action properly brought against him;

(h) that the bankrupt has brought on or contributed to his bankruptcy by incurring unjustifiable expense in bringing any frivolous or vexatious action;

(i) that the bankrupt has, within three months preceding the date of the receiving order, when unable to pay his debts as they became due, given an undue preference to any of his creditors;

(j) that the bankrupt has, within three months preceding the date of the receiving order, incurred liabilities with a view to making his assets equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities;

(k) that the bankrupt has, on any previous occasion, been adjudged bankrupt, or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors;

(l) that the bankrupt has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust;

(m) that the bankrupt has made default in payment of any sum ordered by the court, under the provisions of section 55.

(4) With a view to removing any legal disqualification on account of bankruptcy which is removed if the bankrupt obtains from the court his discharge with a certificate to the effect that the bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part, the court may grant the certificate, but a refusal to grant such a certificate shall be subject to appeal.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a bankrupt's assets shall be deemed of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities when the court is satisfied that the property of the bankrupt has realized, or is likely to realize, or with due care in realization might have realized, an amount equal to ten shillings in the pound on his unsecured liabilities, and a report by the official receiver or the trustee shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of those liabilities.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the report of the official receiver shall be prima facie evidence of the statements therein contained.

(7) Notice of the appointment by the court of the day for hearing the application for discharge shall be published in the prescribed manner and sent fourteen days at least before the day so appointed to each creditor who has proved, and the court may hear the official receiver and the trustee, and may also hear any creditor who has proved, or his representative authorized in writing; and at the hearing the court may put such questions to the debtor and receive such evidence as it may think fit.

	(8) The powers of suspending and of attaching conditions to a bankrupt's discharge may be exercised concurrently. (9) A discharged bankrupt shall, notwithstanding his discharge, give such assistance as the trustee may require in the realization and distribution of such of his property as is vested in the trustee, and, if he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court and the court may also revoke his discharge, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made or thing duly done subsequently to the discharge but before its revocation.
Fraudulent settlements.	30. In either of the following cases— (a) in the case of a settlement made before and in consideration of marriage where the settlor is not at the time of making the settlement able to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement: or (b) in the case of any covenant or contract made in consideration of marriage for the future settlement on or for the settlor's wife or children of any money or property wherein he had not at the date of his marriage any estate or interest (not being money or property of or in right of his wife), if the settlor is adjudged bankrupt or compounds or arranges with his creditors, and it appears to the court that the settlement, covenant or contract was made in order to defeat or delay creditors, or was unjustifiable having regard to the state of the settlor's affairs at the time when it was made, the court may refuse or suspend an order of discharge, or grant an order subject to conditions, or refuse to approve a composition or arrangement, in the same manner as in cases where the debtor has been guilty of fraud.
Failure to apply for discharge.	31. If the bankrupt does not appear on the day fixed for the hearing of his application for discharge or on such subsequent day as the court may direct, or if the bankrupt does not apply for an order of discharge within the period specified under subsection (1) of section 29, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.
Effect of order of discharge. 20 of 1955, s.2, 21 of 1966, 1st Sch.	32. (1) An order of discharge shall not release the bankrupt— (a) from any debt on a recognizance nor from any debt with which the bankrupt may be chargeable at the suit of the Government or of any person for any offence against any law relating to any branch of the general revenue of Kenya, or at the suit of the bailiff or other public officer on a bail bond entered into for the appearance of any person prosecuted for any such offence; and he shall not be discharged from such excepted debts unless the Permanent Secretary to the Treasury certifies in writing his consent to the bankrupt being discharged therefrom; or (b) from any debt or liability incurred by means of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust to which he was a party, nor from any debt or liability whereof he has obtained forbearance by any fraud to which he was a party; or (c) from any liability under a judgment against him in an action for seduction or affiliation, or under a judgment against him as a co-respondent in a matrimonial cause, except to such an extent and under such conditions as the court expressly orders in respect of that liability. (2) An order of discharge shall release the bankrupt from all other debts provable in bankruptcy. (3) An order of discharge shall be conclusive evidence of the bankruptcy, and of the validity of the proceedings therein, and in any proceedings that may be instituted against a bankrupt who has obtained an order of discharge in respect of any debt from which he is

	released by the order the bankrupt may plead that the cause of action occurred before his discharge. (4) An order of discharge shall not release any person who at the date of the receiving order was a partner or co-trustee with the bankrupt, or was jointly bound or had made any joint contract with him, or any person who was surety or in the nature of a surety for him.
Power of court to annual adjudication.	33.(1) Where in the opinion of the court a debtor ought not to have been adjudged bankrupt, or where it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the debts of the bankrupt are paid in full, the court may, on the application of any person interested, by order annul the adjudication. (2) Where an adjudication is annulled under this section, all sales and dispositions of property and payments duly made and all acts theretofore done, by the official receiver, trustee or other person acting under their authority, or by the court, shall be valid, but the property of the debtor who was adjudged bankrupt shall vest in such person as the court may appoint, or, in default of any such appointment, revert to the debtor for all his estate or interest therein on such terms and subject to such conditions as the court may declare by order. (3) Notice of the order annulling an adjudication shall be forthwith gazetted. (4) For the purposes of this section, any debt disputed by a debtor shall be considered as paid in full if the debtor enters into a bond, in such sum and with such sureties as the court approves, to pay the amount to be recovered in any proceeding for the recovery of or concerning the debt, with costs, and any debt due to a creditor who cannot be found or cannot be identified shall be considered as paid in full if paid into court.
Bankrupt not to manage business with relative. 50 of 1956, s.10.	34.(1) No person who has been adjudged a bankrupt shall manage, or assist or take part in the management of, any trade or business with any person who is a relative by consanguinity or affinity unless he has first made application to the court for permission so to do, and obtained that permission. (2) On the hearing of the application, the court shall take into consideration a report of the official receiver as to the bankrupt's conduct and affairs, and may refuse permission or grant it either unconditionally or subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may think fit. (3) If a bankrupt in respect of whom permission under this section has been granted fails to comply with any condition or limitation imposed by the court under subsection (2), the official receiver shall report the matter to the court, and the court having considered the report shall make such order thereupon, including the revocation of its original permission, as to the court may seem just. (4) Any person to whom subsection (1) applies who manages, or assists or takes part in the management of, any trade or business as aforesaid without obtaining the permission of the court, or after revocation of permission, shall be guilty of an offence.
Kinds of debts provable in bankruptcy.	35. (1) Demands in the nature of unliquidated damages arising otherwise than by reason of a contract, promise or breach of trust shall not be provable in bankruptcy. (2) A person having notice of any act of bankruptcy available against the debtor shall not prove under the order for any debt or liability contracted by the debtor subsequently to the date of his so having notice. (3) Save as aforesaid, all debts and liabilities, present or future, certain or contingent, to which the debtor is subject at the date of the

	receiving order, or to which he may become subject before his discharge by reason of any obligation incurred before the date of the receiving order, shall be deemed to be debts provable in bankruptcy. (4) An estimate shall be made by the trustee of the value of any debt or liability provable under this section, which by reason of its being subject to any contingency or contingencies, or for any other reason, does not bear a certain value. (5) Any person aggrieved by any estimate made by the trustee under subsection (4) may appeal to the court. (6) If, in the opinion of the court, the value of the debt or liability is incapable of being fairly estimated, the court may make an order to that effect, and thereupon the debt or liability shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a debt not provable in bankruptcy. (7) If, in the opinion of the court, the value of the debt or liability is capable of being fairly estimated, the court may assess the value, and the amount of the value when assessed shall be deemed to be a debt provable in bankruptcy. (8) "Liability", for the purposes of this Act, includes— (a) any compensation for work or labour done; (b) any obligation or possibility of an obligation to pay money or money's worth on the breach of any express or implied covenant, contract, agreement or undertaking, whether the breach does or does not occur, or is or is not likely to occur or be capable of occurring, before the discharge of the debtor; (c) generally, any express or implied engagement, agreement or undertaking to pay, or capable of resulting in the payment of, money or money's worth; whether the payment is as respects amount fixed or unliquidated, or as respects time present or future, or certain or dependent on any one contingency or on two or more contingencies; as to mode of valuation, capable of being ascertained by fixed rules or as matter of opinion.
Mutual credit< and debts mutual credits, been have there Where>	36.Where there have been mutual credits, mutual debts or other mutual dealings, between a debtor against whom a receiving order is made under this Act and any other person proving or claiming to prove a debt under the receiving order, an account shall be taken of what is due from the one party to the other in respect of those mutual dealings, and the sum due from the one party shall be set off against any sum due from the other party, and the balance of the account, and no more, shall be claimed or paid on either side respectively; but a person shall not be entitled under this section to claim the benefit of any set-off against the property of a debtor in any case where he had, at the time of giving credit to the debtor, notice of an act of bankruptcy committed by the debtor and available against him.
Rules as to proof of debts.	37.With respect to the mode of proving debts, the right of proof by secured and other creditors, the admission and rejection of proofs and the other matters referred to in the Second Schedule, the rules in that Schedule shall be observed.
Priority of debts. 50 of 1956,s. 11, 28 of 1965,s. 48, 21 of 1966, 1st Sch. Cap.236. Cap.258.	38.(1) In the distribution of the property of a bankrupt, there shall be paid in priority to all other debts— (a) taxes due to the Government and local rates due from the bankrupt at the date of the receiving order, and having become due and payable within twelve months next before that date, not exceeding in the whole one year's assessment; (b) rents due to the Government not more than five years in arrear; (c) the wages or salary, whether or not earned wholly or in part by way of commission, of any clerk or servant in respect of service rendered to

the bankrupt during four months next before the date of the receiving order, not exceeding four thousand shillings;

(d) the wages of any labourer or workman not exceeding four thousand shillings, whether payable for time or for piecework in respect of services rendered to the bankrupt during four months next before the date of the receiving order:

Provided that, where any labourer or workman has entered into a contract for the payment of a portion of his wages in a lump sum at the end of the period of hiring, the priority under this section shall extend to the whole of that sum, or a part thereof, as the court may decide to be due under the contract, proportionate to the time of service up to the date of the receiving order;

(e) amounts due in respect of compensation or liability for compensation which are given priority under the provisions of section 27 of

An Act of Parliament to provide for compensation to workmen for injuries suffered in the course of their employment"]
the Workmen's Compensation Act;

(f) amount due in respect of contributions payable during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of the receiving order by the bankrupt as the employer of any person under the National Social Security Fund Act.

(2) The foregoing debts shall rank equally between themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the property of the bankrupt is insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the costs of administration or otherwise, the foregoing debts shall be discharged forthwith as far as the property of the debtor is sufficient to meet them.

(4) In the event of a landlord or other person distraining or having distrained on any goods or effects of a bankrupt within three months next before the date of the receiving order, the debts to which priority is given by this section shall be a first charge on the goods or effects so distrained on, or the proceeds of the sale thereof:

Provided that in respect of any money paid under any such charge the landlord or other person shall have the same rights or priority as the person to whom such payment is made.

(5) If a debtor by or against whom a bankruptcy petition has been presented dies, this section shall apply as if he were a bankrupt, and as if the date of his death were substituted for the date of the receiving order.

(6) In the case of partners the joint estate shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of their joint debts, and the separate estate of each partner shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of his separate debts; and if there is a surplus of the separate estate it shall be dealt with as part of the joint estate; and if there is a surplus of the joint estate it shall be dealt with as part of the respective separate estate in proportion to the right and interest of each partner in the joint estate.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this Act, all debts proved in the bankruptcy shall be paid pari passu.

(8) If there is any surplus after payment of the foregoing debts, it shall be applied in payment of interest from the date of the receiving order at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum on all debts proved in the bankruptcy.

(9) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the provisions of any enactment relating to deeds of arrangement respecting the payment of

	expenses incurred by the trustee under a deed of arrangement which has been avoided by the bankruptcy of the debtor.
Preferential claim in case of apprenticeship. 48 of 1959,s. 33. Cap.237.	39.(1) Where at the time of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition any person is apprenticed or is an articed clerk to the bankrupt, the adjudication of bankruptcy shall, if either the bankrupt or apprentice or clerk gives notice in writing to the trustee to that effect, be a complete discharge of the indenture of apprenticeship or articles of agreement; and, if any money has been paid by or on behalf of the apprentice or clerk to the bankrupt as a fee, the trustee may, on the application of the apprentice or clerk, or of some person on his behalf, pay such sum as the trustee, subject to an appeal to the court, thinks reasonable, out of the bankrupt's property, to or for the use of the apprentice or clerk, regard being had to the amount paid by him or on his behalf, and to the time during which he served with the bankrupt under the indenture or articles before the commencement of the bankruptcy, and to the other circumstances of the case. (2) Where it appears expedient to a trustee, he may, subject to the provisions of section 12 of the Industrial Training Act, on the application of any apprentice or articed clerk to the bankrupt, or any person acting on behalf of the apprentice or articed clerk, instead of acting under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, transfer the indenture of apprenticeship or articles of agreement to some other person.
Landlord's power of distress in case of bankruptcy.	40.The landlord or other person to whom any rent is due from the bankrupt may at any time, either before or after the commencement of the bankruptcy, distrain upon the goods or effects of the bankrupt for the rent due to him from the bankrupt, with this limitation, that if the distress for rent is levied after the commencement of the bankruptcy it shall be available only for six months' rent accrued due before the date of the order of adjudication and shall not be available for rent payable in respect of any period after the date when the distress was levied, but the landlord or other person to whom the rent may be due from the bankrupt may prove under the bankruptcy for the surplus due for which the distress may not have been available.
Postponement of claims by relatives. 50 of 1956,s. 12.	41.Where a receiving order has been made against a debtor, no relative by consanguinity or affinity of the debtor who has a claim against the debtor for salary or wages due or in respect of any money or other estate lent or entrusted to the debtor shall be entitled to claim as a creditor in respect thereof until all claims of the other creditors for valuable consideration or money's worth have been satisfied
Relation back to trustee's title.	42.(1) The bankruptcy of a debtor, whether it takes place on the debtor's own petition or upon that of a creditor or creditors, shall be deemed to have relation back to, and to commence at, the time of the act of bankruptcy being committed on which a receiving order is made against him, or, if the bankrupt is proved to have committed more acts of bankruptcy than one, to have relation back to, and commence at, the time of the first of the acts of bankruptcy proved to have been committed by the bankrupt within three months next preceding the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition; but no bankruptcy petition, receiving order or adjudication shall be rendered invalid by reason of any act of bankruptcy anterior to the debt of the petitioning creditor. (2) Where a receiving order is made against the judgment debtor in pursuance of section 102, the bankruptcy of the debtor shall be deemed to have relation back to, and to commence at, the time of the order, or,

	if the bankrupt is proved to have committed any previous act of bankruptcy, then to have relation back to, and to commence at, the time of the first of the acts of bankruptcy proved to have been committed by the debtor within three months next preceding the date of the order.
Description of bankrupt's property divisible amongst creditors. 50 of 1956,s. 13.	43.The property of the bankrupt divisible amongst his creditors, in this Act referred to as the property of the bankrupt, shall not comprise the following particulars— (a) property held by the bankrupt on trust for any other person; (b) the tools (if any) of his trade and the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself, his wife and children, to a value, inclusive of tools and apparel and bedding, not exceeding five hundred shillings in the whole, except that in any case the court, having regard to the bankrupt's station in life, may order that this allowance be increased to any value not exceeding one thousand shillings in the whole; but it shall comprise the following particulars— (i) all such property as may belong to or be vested in the bankrupt at the commencement of the bankruptcy, or may be acquired by or devolve on him before his discharge; and (ii) the capacity to exercise and to take proceedings for exercising all such powers in or over or in respect of property as might have been exercised by the bankrupt for his own benefit at the commencement of his bankruptcy or before his discharge; and (iii) all goods, being at the commencement of the bankruptcy in the possession, order or disposition of the bankrupt, in his trade or business, by the consent and permission of the true owner, under such circumstances that he is the reputed owner thereof; but things in action other than debts due or growing due to the bankrupt in the course of his trade or business shall not be deemed goods within the meaning of this paragraph.
Provisions as to second bankruptcy.	44.(1) Where a second or subsequent receiving order is made against a bankrupt, or where an order is made for the administration in bankruptcy of the estate of a deceased bankrupt, then, for the purposes of any proceedings consequent upon any such order, the trustee in the last preceding bankruptcy shall be deemed to be a creditor in respect of any unsatisfied balance of the debts provable against the property of the bankrupt in that bankruptcy. (2) In the event of a second or subsequent receiving order made against a bankrupt being followed by an order adjudging him bankrupt, or in the event of an order being made for the administration in bankruptcy of the estate of a deceased bankrupt, any property acquired by him since he was last adjudged bankrupt which at the date when the subsequent petition was presented had not been distributed amongst the creditors in the last preceding bankruptcy shall (subject to any disposition thereof made by the official receiver or trustee in that bankruptcy, without knowledge of the presentation of the subsequent petition, and subject to the provisions of section 52) vest in the trustee in the subsequent bankruptcy or administration in bankruptcy, as the case may be. (3) Where the trustee in any bankruptcy receives notice of a subsequent petition in bankruptcy against the bankrupt or after his decease of a petition for the administration of his estate in bankruptcy, the trustee shall hold any property then in his possession which has been acquired by the bankrupt since he was adjudged bankrupt until the subsequent petition has been disposed of, and, if on the subsequent petition an order of adjudication or an order of the administration of the estate in bankruptcy is made, he shall transfer all such property or

	the proceeds thereof (after deducting his costs and expenses) to the trustee in the subsequent bankruptcy or administration in bankruptcy, as the case may be.
Restriction of rights of creditor under execution or attachment.	45.(1) Where a creditor has issued execution against the goods or lands of a debtor, or has attached any debt due to him, he shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution or attachment against the trustee in bankruptcy of the debtor, unless he has completed the execution or attachment before the date of the receiving order, and before notice of the presentation of any bankruptcy petition by or against the debtor or of the commission of any available act of bankruptcy by the debtor. (2) For the purposes of this Act, an execution against goods is completed by seizure and sale; and attachment of a debt is completed by receipt of the debt; and an execution against land is completed by seizure, or, in the case of an equitable interest, by the appointment of a receiver. (3) An execution levied by seizure and sale on the goods of a debtor is not invalid by reason only of its being an act of bankruptcy, and a person who purchases the goods in good faith under a sale by the bailiff shall, in all cases, acquire a good title to them against the trustee in bankruptcy.
Duties of bailiff as to goods taken in execution.	46.(1) Where any goods of a debtor are taken in execution, and before the sale thereof, or the completion of the execution by the receipt or recovery of the full amount of the levy, notice is served on the bailiff that a receiving order has been made against the debtor, the bailiff shall, on request, deliver the goods and any money seized or received in part satisfaction of the execution to the official receiver, but the costs of the execution shall be a first charge on the goods or money so delivered, and the official receiver or trustee may sell the goods, or an adequate part thereof, for the purpose of satisfying the charge. (2) Where, under an execution in respect of a decree for a sum exceeding four hundred shillings, the goods of a debtor are sold or money is paid in order to avoid sale, the bailiff shall deduct his costs of the execution from the proceeds at sale or the money paid, and retain the balance for fourteen days, and, if within that time notice is served on him of a bankruptcy petition having been presented by or against the debtor, and a receiving order is made against the debtor thereon or on any other petition of which the bailiff has notice, the bailiff shall pay the balance to the official receiver, or, as the case may be, to the trustee, who shall be entitled to retain it as against the execution-creditor. (3) Where any goods in the possession of an execution- debtor at the time of seizure by a bailiff are sold by that bailiff without any claim having been made to them, the purchaser of the goods so sold shall acquire a good title to them, and no person shall be entitled to recover against the bailiff or any other person lawfully acting under his authority for any sale of the goods or for paying over the proceeds thereof prior to the receipt of a claim to the goods, unless it is proved that the person from whom recovery is sought had notice, or might by making reasonable inquiry have ascertained, that the goods were not the property of the execution-debtor: Provided that nothing in this subsection shall affect the right of any claimant who may prove that at the time of sale he had a title to the goods to any remedy to which he may be entitled against any person other than the bailiff. certain settlements, covenants and payments.

and in consideration of marriage, or made in favour of a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for valuable consideration, or a settlement made on or for the wife or children of the settlor of property which has accrued to the settlor after marriage in right of his wife, shall, if the settlor becomes bankrupt within two years after the date of the settlement, be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, and shall, if the settlor becomes bankrupt at any subsequent time within ten years after the date of the settlement, be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, unless the parties claiming under the settlement can prove that the settlor was at the time of making the settlement, able to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement, and that the interest of the settlor in that property passed to the trustee of the settlement on the execution thereof.

(2) Any covenant or contract made by any person (hereinafter called the settlor) in consideration of his or her marriage, either for the future payment of money for the benefit of the settlor's wife or husband or children or for the future settlement on or for the settlor's wife or husband or children of property wherein the settlor had not at the date of the marriage any estate or interest, whether vested or contingent, in possession or remainder, and not being money or property in right of the settlor's wife or husband, shall, if the settlor is adjudged bankrupt and the covenant or contract has not been executed at the date of the commencement of his bankruptcy, be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, except so far as it enables the persons entitled under the covenant or contract to claim for dividend in the settlor's bankruptcy under or in respect of the covenant or contract, but any such claim to dividend shall be postponed until all claims of the other creditors for valuable consideration in money or money's worth have been satisfied.

(3) Any payment of money (not being payment of premiums on a policy of life assurance) or any transfer of property made by the settlor in pursuance of a covenant or contract referred to in this section shall be void against the trustee in the settlor's bankruptcy unless the persons to whom the payment or transfer was made prove either—

(a) that the payment or transfer was made more than two years before the date of the commencement, of the bankruptcy; or

(b) that at the date of the payment or transfer the settlor was able to pay all his debts without the aid of the money so paid or the property so transferred; or

(c) that the payment or transfer was made in pursuance of a covenant or contract to pay or transfer money or property expected to come to the settlor from or on the death of a particular person named in the covenant or contract, and was made within three months after the money or property came into the possession or under the control of the settlor, but, in the event of any such payment or transfer being declared void, the persons to whom it was made shall be entitled to claim for dividend under or in respect of the covenant or contract in the same manner as if it had not been executed at the commencement of the bankruptcy.

(4) "Settlement", for the purposes of this section, includes any conveyance or transfer of property

Assignment to be registered. Cap 28.

48. Where any person makes an assignment, whether by the way of security or otherwise, to any other person, of any existing or future debts due or becoming due to him, or any class of such debts, the provisions of section 13 of the Chattels Transfer Act shall apply to that assignment.

Avoidance of preference in

certain cases.	taken or suffered by any person unable to pay his debts as they become due from his own money in favour of any creditor, or of any person in trust for any creditor, with a view to giving the creditor, or any surety or guarantor for the debt due to the creditor, a preference over the other creditors, shall, if the person making, taking, paying or suffering it is adjudged bankrupt on a bankruptcy petition presented within six months after the date of making, taking, paying or suffering it, be deemed fraudulent and void as against the trustee in the bankruptcy. (2) This section shall not affect the rights of any person making title in good faith and for valuable consideration through or under a creditor of the bankrupt. (3) Where a receiving order is made against a judgment- debtor in pursuance of section 102, this section shall apply as if the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt on a bankruptcy petition presented at the date of the receiving order.
Protection of bona fide transactions without notice.	50. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to the effect of bankruptcy on an execution or attachment, and with respect to the avoidance of certain settlements, assignments and preferences, nothing in this Act shall invalidate, in the case of a bankruptcy— (a) any payment by the bankrupt to any of his creditors; (b) any payment or delivery to the bankrupt; (c) any conveyance or assignment by the bankrupt for valuable consideration; (d) any contract, dealing or transaction by or with the bankrupt for valuable consideration, if both the following conditions are complied with, namely— (i) the payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing or transaction, as the case may be, takes place before the date of the receiving order; and (ii) the person (other than the debtor) to, by or with whom the payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing or transaction was made, executed or entered into has not at the time of the payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing or transaction notice of any available act of bankruptcy committed by the bankrupt before that time.
Validity of certain payments to bankrupt and assignee.	51. A payment of money or delivery of property to a person subsequently adjudged bankrupt, or to a person claiming by assignment from him, shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, be a good discharge to the person paying the money or delivering the property, if the payment or delivery is made before the actual date on which the receiving order is made and without notice of the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, and is either pursuant to the ordinary course of business or otherwise bona fide.
Dealings with un-discharged bankrupt.	52. (1) All transactions by a bankrupt with any person dealing with him bona fide and for value in respect of property, whether movable or immovable, acquired by the bankrupt after the adjudication shall, if completed before any intervention by the trustee, be valid against the trustee, and any estate or interest in that property which by virtue of this Act is vested in the trustee shall determine and pass in such manner and to such extent as may be required for giving effect to the transaction. (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the receipt of any money, security or negotiable instrument from, or by the order or direction of, a bankrupt by his banker, and any payment and any delivery of any security or negotiable instrument made to, or by the order or direction

	of. a bankrupt by his banker, shall be deemed to be a transaction by the bankrupt with the banker dealing with him for value. (3) Where a banker has ascertained that a person having an account with him is an undischarged bankrupt, then, unless the banker is satisfied that the account is on behalf of some other person, it shall be his duty forthwith to inform the trustee in the bankruptcy or the official receiver of the existence of the account, and thereafter he shall not make any payments out of the account, except under an order of the court or in accordance with instructions from the trustee in the bankruptcy, unless by the expiration of one month from the date of giving the information no instructions have been received from the trustee or the official receiver.
Possession of property by trustee.	53.(1) The trustee shall, as soon as may be, take possession of the deeds, books and documents of the bankrupt, and all other parts of his property capable of manual delivery. (2) The trustee shall, in relation to and for the purpose of acquiring or retaining possession of the property of the bankrupt, be in the same position as if he were a receiver of the property appointed by the court, and the court may, on his application, enforce such acquisition or retention accordingly. (3) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of stock, shares in ships, shares or any other property transferable in the books of any company, office or person, the trustee may exercise the right to transfer the property to the same extent as the bankrupt might have exercised if he had not become bankrupt. (4) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of things in action, such things shall be deemed to have been duly assigned to the trustee. (5) Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to property acquired by a bankrupt after adjudication, any treasurer or other officer, or any banker, attorney or agent of a bankrupt, shall pay and deliver to the trustee all money and securities in his possession or power as officer, banker, attorney or agent and which he is not by law entitled to retain as against the bankrupt or the trustee; and, if he does not, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court, and may be punished accordingly on the application of the trustee.
Seizure of property of bankrupt.	54.Any person acting under warrant of the court may seize any part of the property of a bankrupt, or of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, in the custody or possession of the bankrupt or the debtor, or of any other person, and with a view to seizure may break open any house, building or room of the bankrupt or the debtor where the bankrupt or the debtor is supposed to be, or any building or receptacle of the bankrupt or the debtor where any of his property is supposed to be; and, where the court is satisfied that there is reason to believe that property of a bankrupt, or of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, is concealed in a house or place not belonging to him, the court may grant a search warrant to any police officer or officer of the court, who may execute it according to its tenor.
Appropriation of proportion of pay or salary to creditors. 50 of 1956, s. 14, L.N.462/1963, L.N.87/1964.	55.(1) Where a bankrupt is an officer of the army, navy or air force, or an officer or clerk or otherwise employed or engaged in the civil service of Kenya, the trustee shall receive for distribution amongst the creditors so much of the bankrupts pay or salary as the court, on the application of the trustee, with the consent of the head of the department under which the pay or salary is enjoyed, may direct; but before making any order under this subsection, the court shall communicate with the head of the department as to the amount, time

	and manner of the payment to the trustee, and shall obtain the written consent of the head of the department to the terms of the payment. (2) Where a bankrupt is in receipt of a salary or income other than that referred to in subsection (1), the court, on the application of the trustee, shall from time to time make such order as it thinks just for the payment of the salary or income, or of any part thereof, to the trustee, to be applied by him in such manner as the court may direct. (3) Where a bankrupt is an employee and earning wages, whether or not payment of those wages is made by the day or by any other period of time, the court, on the application of the trustee, shall, from time to time, make such order as it thinks just for the payment of any part of those wages to the trustee, to be applied by him in such manner as the court may direct. (4) Every order made under subsection (1) shall be served upon the bankrupt and upon the head of department, and every order made under subsection (2) or subsection (3) shall be served upon the bankrupt, and may, at any time after the making thereof, be served upon the person by whom the salary or income of the bankrupt is paid or upon the bankrupt's employer, as the case may be; and, if any such order is served upon the head of the department, the person paying the salary or income or the employer, the amounts of pay salary, income or wages specified in the order shall thereafter be paid to the trustee in conformity with the terms thereof. (5) Nothing in this section shall take away or abridge any power to dismiss a bankrupt in accordance with the law.
Appropriation of income restrained from anticipation.	56.Where a married woman who has been adjudged bankrupt has property the income of which is subject to a restraint on anticipation, the court may, on the application of the trustee, order that, during such time as the court may order, the whole or some part of the income be paid to the trustee for distribution amongst the creditors, and in the exercise of that power the court shall have regard to the means of subsistence available for the woman and her children.
Vesting and transfer of property.	57.(1) Until a trustee is appointed, the official receiver shall be the trustee for the purposes of this Act, and, immediately on a debtor, being adjudged bankrupt, the property of the bankrupt shall vest in the trustee. (2) On the appointment of a trustee, the property shall forthwith pass to and vest in the trustee appointed. (3) The property of the bankrupt shall pass from trustee to trustee, including under that term the official receiver when he fills the office of trustee, and shall vest in the trustee for the time being during his continuance in office, without any conveyance, assignment or transfer whatever. (4) The certificate of appointment of a trustee shall, for all purposes of any law in force in any part of Kenya requiring registration or recording of conveyances or assignments of property, be deemed to be a conveyance or assignment of property, and may be registered and recorded accordingly.
Disclaimer of onerous property and rescission of contracts.	58.(1) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of land of any tenure burdened with onerous covenants, or of shares or stock in companies, or of unprofitable contracts, or of any other property that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable, by reason of its binding the possessor thereof to the performance of any onerous act, or to the payment of any sum of money, the trustee, notwithstanding that he has endeavoured to sell or has taken possession of the property, or exercised any act of ownership in relation thereto, but subject to the provisions of this section, may, by writing signed by him, at any time within twelve months after the first appointment of a trustee or such extended period as may be allowed by the court, disclaim the property: Provided that, where any such property has not come to the knowledge of the trustee within one month after the appointment, he may disclaim the property at any time within twelve months after he has become aware thereof or such extended period as may be allowed by the court.

(2) The disclaimer shall operate to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interests and liabilities of the bankrupt and his property in or in respect of the property disclaimed, and shall also discharge the trustee from all personal liability in respect of the property disclaimed as from the date when the property vested in him, but shall not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the bankrupt and his property and the trustee from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) A trustee shall not be entitled to disclaim a lease without the leave of the court, except in any cases which may be prescribed, and the court may, before or on granting leave, require such notices to be given to persons interested, and impose such terms as a condition of granting leave, and make such orders with respect to fixtures, tenants improvements and other matters arising out of the tenancy, as the court thinks just.

(4) The trustee shall not be entitled to disclaim any property in pursuance of this section in any case where an application in writing has been made to the trustee by any person interested in the property requiring him to decide whether he will disclaim or not, and the trustee has for a period of twenty-eight days after the receipt of the application, or such extended period as may be allowed by the court, declined or neglected to give notice whether he disclaims the property or not; and, in the case of a contract, if the trustee, after such an application, does not within that period or extended period disclaim the contract, he shall be deemed to have adopted it.

(5) The court may, on the application of any person who is, as against the trustee, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the bankrupt, make an order rescinding the contract on such terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise, as to the court may seem equitable, and any damages payable under the order to any such person may be proved by him as a debt under the bankruptcy.

(6) The court may, on application by any person either claiming any interest in any disclaimed property or under any liability not discharged by this Act in respect of any disclaimed property, and on hearing such persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in, or delivery thereof to, any person entitled thereto, or to whom it may seem just that it should be delivered by way of compensation for that liability, or a trustee for him, and on such terms as the court thinks just; and, on any such vesting order being made, the property comprised therein shall vest accordingly in the person therein named in that behalf without any conveyance or assignment for the purpose: Provided that, where the property disclaimed is of a leasehold nature, the court shall not make a vesting order in favour of any person claiming under the bankrupt, whether as under-lessee or as mortgagee by demise, except upon the terms of making that person—

(i) subject to the same liabilities and obligations as the bankrupt was subject to under the lease in respect of the property at the date when the bankruptcy petition was filed; or

(ii) if the court thinks fit, subject only to the same liabilities and obligations as if the lease had been assigned to that person at that date, and in either event (if the case so requires) as if the lease had comprised only the property comprised in the vesting order; and any mortgagee or under-lessee declining to accept a vesting order upon those terms shall be excluded from all interest in and security upon the property, and, if there is no person claiming under the bankrupt who is willing to accept an order upon those terms, the court may vest the bankrupt's estate and interest in the property in any person liable either personally or in a representative character, and either alone or jointly with the bankrupt to perform the lessee's covenants in the lease, freed and discharged from all estates, encumbrances and interests created therein by the bankrupt.

(7) Where, on the release, removal, resignation or death of a trustee in bankruptcy, an official receiver is acting as trustee, he may disclaim any property which might be disclaimed by a trustee under this section, notwithstanding that the time prescribed by this section for the disclaimer has expired, but the power of disclaimer shall be exercisable only within twelve months after the official receiver has become trustee in the circumstances aforesaid, or has become aware of the existence of the property, whichever period may last expire.

(8) Any person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be a creditor of the bankrupt to the extent of the injury, and may accordingly prove it as a debt under the bankruptcy.

Powers of trustee to deal with property.

59. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee may do all or any of the following things—

(a) sell all or any part of the property of the bankrupt (including the goodwill of the business, if any, and the book debts due or growing due to the bankrupt) by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole thereof to any person or company, or to sell it in parcels;

(b) give receipts for any money received by him, which receipts shall effectually discharge the person paying the money from all responsibility in respect of the application thereof;

(c) prove, rank, claim and draw a dividend in respect of any debt due to the bankrupt;

(d) exercise any powers the capacity to exercise which is vested in the trustee under this Act, and execute any powers of attorney, deeds and other instruments, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act;

(e) deal with any property to which the bankrupt as beneficially entitled as tenant in tail in the same manner as the bankrupt might have dealt with it.

Powers exercisable by trustee with permission of committee of inspection.

60.(1) The trustee may, with the permission of the committee of inspection, do all or any of the following things—

(a) carry on the business of the bankrupt, so far as may be necessary for its beneficial winding up;

(b) bring, institute or defend any action or other legal proceeding relating to the property of the bankrupt;

(c) employ an advocate or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which may be sanctioned by the committee of inspection;

(d) accept as the consideration for the sale of any property of the bankrupt a sum of money payable at a future time subject to such stipulations as to security and otherwise as the committee think fit;

(e) mortgage or pledge any part of the property of the bankrupt for the purpose of raising money for the payment of his debts;

(f) refer any dispute to arbitration, compromise any debts, claims and

	liabilities, whether present or future, certain or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the bankrupt and any person who may have incurred any liability to the bankrupt, on the receipt of such sums, payable at such times, and generally on such terms, as may be agreed on; (g) make such compromise or other arrangement as may be thought expedient with creditors, or persons claiming to be creditors, in respect of any debts provable under the bankruptcy; (h) make such compromise or other arrangement as may be thought expedient with respect to any claim arising out of or incidental to the property of the bankrupt, made or capable of being made on the trustee by any person or by the trustee on any person; (i) divide in its existing form amongst the creditors, according to its estimated value, any property which from its peculiar nature or other special circumstances cannot be readily or advantageously sold. (2) The permission given for the purposes of this section shall not be a general permission to do all or any of the above-mentioned things, but shall only be a permission to do the particular thing or things for which permission is sought in the specified case or cases.
Power to allow bankrupt to manage property.	61.The trustee, with the permission of the committee of inspection, may appoint the bankrupt himself to superintend the management of the property of the bankrupt or of any part thereof, or to carry on the trade (if any) of the bankrupt for the benefit of his creditors, and in any other respect to aid in administering the property, in such manner and on such terms as the trustee may direct.
Allowance to bankrupt for maintenance or service.	62.The trustee may from time to time, with the permission of the committee of inspection, make such allowance as he may think just to the bankrupt out of his property for the support of the bankrupt and his family, or in consideration of his services if he is engaged in winding up his estate, but any such allowance may be reduced by the court.
Right of trustee to inspect goods pawned, etc.	63.Where any goods of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made are held by any person by way of pledge, pawn or other security, the official receiver or trustee may, after giving notice in writing of his intention to do so, inspect the goods, and, where notice has been given, that person shall not be entitled to realize his security until he has given the trustee a reasonable opportunity of inspecting the goods and of exercising his right of redemption if he thinks fit to do so.
Limitation of trustee's powers in relation to copyright.	64.Where the property of a bankrupt comprises the copyright in any work or any interest in the copyright, and he is liable to pay to the author of the work royalties or a share of the profits in respect thereof, the trustee shall not be entitled to sell, or authorize the sale of, any copies of the work, or to perform or authorize the performance of the work, except on the terms of paying to the author such sums by way of royalty or share of the profits as would have been payable by the bankrupt, nor shall he, without the consent of the author or of the court, be entitled to assign the right or transfer the interest or to grant any interest in the right by licence, except upon terms which will secure to the author payments by way of royalty or share of the profits at a rate not less than that which the bankrupt was liable to pay.
Protection of official receiver and trustee from personal liability in certain cases.	65.Where the official receiver or trustee has seized or disposed of any goods, chattels, property or other effects in the possession or on the premises of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, without notice of any claim by any person in respect of them, and it is thereafter made to appear that the goods, chattels, property or other

	effects were not, at the date of the receiving order, the property of the debtor, the official receiver or trustee shall not be personally liable for any loss or damage arising from the seizure of disposal sustained by any person claiming the property, nor for the costs of any proceedings taken to establish a claim thereto, unless the court is of opinion that the official receiver or trustee has been guilty of negligence in respect of it
Declaration and distribution of dividends.	66.(1) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the costs of administration, or otherwise, the trustee shall, with all convenient speed, declare and distribute dividends amongst the creditors who have proved their debts. (2) The first dividend, if any, shall be declared and distributed within four months after the conclusion of the first meeting of creditors, unless the trustee satisfies the committee of inspection that there is sufficient reason for postponing the declaration to a later date. (3) Subsequent dividends shall, in the absence of sufficient reason to the contrary, be declared and distributed at intervals of not more than six months. (4) Before declaring a dividend, the trustee shall cause notice of his intention to do so to be gazetted in the prescribed manner, and shall also send reasonable notice thereof to each creditor mentioned in the bankrupts statement who has not proved his debt. (5) When the trustee has declared a dividend, he shall send to each creditor who has proved a notice showing the amount of the dividend and when and how it is payable, and a statement in the prescribed form as to the particulars of the estate.
Joint and separate dividends.	67.(1) Where one partner of a firm is adjudged bankrupt, a creditor to whom the bankrupt is indebted jointly with the other partners of the firm, or any of them, shall not receive any dividend out of the separate property of the bankrupt until all the separate creditors have received the full amount of their respective debts. (2) Where joint and separate properties are being administered, dividends of the joint and separate properties shall, unless otherwise directed by the court on the application of any person interested, be declared together, and the expenses of and incidental to those dividends shall be fairly apportioned by the trustee between the joint and separate properties, regard being had to the work done for and the benefit received by each property.
Provisions for creditors residing at a distance, etc.	68.(1) In the calculation and distribution of a dividend, the trustee shall make provision for debts provable in bankruptcy appearing from the bankrupt's statements, or otherwise, to be due to persons resident in places so distant from the place where the trustee is acting that in the ordinary course of communication they have not had sufficient time to tender their proofs, or to establish them, if disputed, and also for debts provable in bankruptcy the subject of claims not yet determined. (2) He shall also make provision for any disputed proofs or claims, and for the expenses necessary for the administration of the estate or otherwise. (3) Subject to the foregoing provisions, he shall distribute as dividend all money in hand.
Right of creditor who has not proved debt before declaration of a dividend.	69. Any creditor who has not proved his debt before the declaration of any dividend or dividends shall be entitled to be paid out of any money for the time being in the hands of the trustee any dividend or dividends he may have failed to receive before that money is applied to the payment of any future

	dividend or dividends, but he shall not be entitled to disturb the distribution of any dividend declared before his debt was proved by reason that he has not participated therein.
Interest on debts. 50 of 1956, s.15.	70.(1) Where a debt has been proved, and the debt includes interest, or any pecuniary consideration in lieu of interest, that interest or consideration shall, for the purposes of dividend, be calculated at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, without prejudice to the right of a creditor to receive out of the estate any higher rate of interest to which he may be entitled after all the debts proved in the estate have been paid in full. (2) In dealing with the proof of the debt the following rules shall be observed— (a) any account settled between the debtor and the creditor within three years preceding the date of the receiving order may be examined, and, if it appears that the settlement of the account forms substantially one transaction with any debt alleged to be due out of the debtor's estate (whether in the form of renewal of a loan or capitalization of interest or ascertainment of loans or otherwise), the account may be reopened and the whole transaction treated as one; (b) any payments made by the debtor to the creditor before the receiving order, whether by way of bonus or otherwise, and any sums received by the creditor before the receiving order from the realization of any security for the debt, shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be appropriated to principal and interest in the proportion that the principal bears to the sum payable as interest at the agreed rate; (c) where the debt due is secured and the security is realized after the receiving order, or the value thereof is assessed in the proof, the amount realized or assessed shall be appropriated to the satisfaction of principal and interest in the proportion that the principal bears to the sum payable as interest at the agreed rate.
Final dividend.	71.(1) When the trustee has realized all the property of the bankrupt, or so much thereof as can, in the joint opinion of himself and of the committee of inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the trusteeship, he shall declare a final dividend, but before so doing he shall give notice in manner prescribed to the persons whose claims to be creditors have been notified to him, but not established to his satisfaction, that if they do not establish their claims to the satisfaction of the court within a time limited by the notice he will proceed to make a final dividend without regard to their claims. (2) After the expiration of the time so limited, or, if the court on application by any such claimant grants him further time for establishing his claim, then, on the expiration of that further time, the property of the bankrupt shall be divided amongst the creditors who have proved their debts, without regard to the claims of any other persons.
No action for dividend.	72.No action for dividend shall lie against the trustee, but, if the trustee refuses to pay any dividend, the court may order him to pay it, and also to pay out of his own money interest thereon for the time that it is withheld, and the costs of the application.
Right of bankrupt to surplus.	73.The bankrupt shall be entitled to any surplus remaining after payment in full of his creditors, with interest, as by this Act provided, and of the costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings under the bankruptcy petition.

Appointment of official receiver and deputy official receivers. L.N.87/1964.	74.(1) There shall be an official receiver of debtors' estates for Kenya, and as many deputy official receivers as may be required from time to time, who shall have jurisdiction in such areas as may be specified. (2) The official receiver and the deputy official receivers shall be appointed, be removable by and be under the general authority and directions of the Minister, and they shall also be officers of the court. (3) A deputy official receiver shall have the same powers, rights and duties within the area for which he is appointed as an official receiver under this Act.
Status of official receiver.	75.(1) The duties of the official receiver shall have relation both to the conduct of the debtor and to the administration of his estate. (2) The official receiver may, for the purposes of affidavits verifying proofs, petitions or other proceedings under this Act, administer oaths. (3) All provisions in this or any other Act referring to the trustee in a bankruptcy shall, unless the context otherwise requires or the Act otherwise provides, include the official receiver when acting as trustee. (4) The trustee shall supply the official receiver with such information, and give him such access to and facilities for inspecting the bankrupt's books and documents, and generally shall give him such aid, as may be requisite for enabling the official receiver to perform his duties under this Act.
Duties of official receiver as regards he debtor's conduct.	76.As regards the debtor, it shall be the duty of the official receiver— (a) to investigate the conduct of the debtor and to report to the court, stating whether there is reason to believe that the debtor has committed any act which constitutes an offence under this Act or which would justify the court in refusing, suspending or qualifying an order for his discharge; (b) to make such other reports concerning the conduct of the debtor as the court may direct; (c) to take such part as he may deem fit in the public examination of the debtor: (d) to take such part and give such assistance in relation to the prosecution of any fraudulent debtor as the Attorney-General may direct.
Duties of official receiver as to debtor's estate.	77.(1) As regards the estate of a debtor, it shall be the duty of the official receiver— (a) pending the appointment of a trustee, to act as interim receiver of the debtor's estate and, where a special manager is not appointed, as manager thereof; (b) to authorize the special manager to raise money or make advances for the purposes of the estate in any case where, in the interests of the creditors, it appears necessary so to do; (c) to summon and preside at the first meeting of creditors; (d) to issue forms of proxy for use at the meetings of creditors; (e) to report to the creditors as to any. proposal which the debtor may have made with respect to the mode of liquidating his affairs; (f) to advertise the receiving order, the date of the creditors' first meeting and of the debtor's public examination and such other matters as it may be necessary to advertise; (g) to act as trustee during any vacancy in the office of trustee. (2) For the purpose of his duties as interim receiver or manager the official receiver shall have the same powers as if he were a receiver and manager appointed by the court, but shall, as far as practicable, consult the wishes of the creditors with respect to the management of

	the debtor's property, and may for that purpose summon meetings of the persons claiming to be creditors, and shall not, unless the court otherwise orders, incur any expense beyond such as is requisite for the protection of the debtors property or the disposing of perishable goods: Provided that, when the debtor cannot himself prepare a proper statement of affairs, the official receiver may, subject to any prescribed conditions and at the expense of the estate, employ some person or persons to assist in the preparation of the statement of affairs.
Official name of trustee.	78.The official name of a trustee in bankruptcy shall be "the trustee of the property of, a bankrupt" (inserting the name of the bankrupt), and by that name the trustee may, in any part of Kenya or elsewhere, hold property of every description, make contracts, sue and be sued, enter into any engagements binding on himself, and his successors in office, and do all other acts necessary or expedient to be done in the execution of his office.
Power to appoint joint or successive trustees.	79.(1) The creditors may appoint more persons than one to the office of trustee, and when more persons than one are appointed they shall declare whether any act required or authorized to be done by the trustee is to be done by all or any one or more of those persons, but all such persons are in this Act included under the term "trustee", and shall be joint tenants of the property of the bankrupt. (2) The creditors may also appoint persons to act as trustees in succession in the event of one or more of the persons first named declining to accept the office of trustee, or failing to give security, or of the appointment of any such
Proceedings in case of vacancy in office of trustee.	80.(1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a trustee, the creditors in general meeting may appoint a person to fill the vacancy, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be taken as in the case of a first appointment. (2) The official receiver shall, on the requisition of any creditor, summon a meeting for the purpose of filling any such vacancy. (3) If the creditors do not, within three weeks after the occurrence of a vacancy, appoint a person to fill the vacancy, the official receiver shall report the matter to the court, and the court may appoint a trustee; but in that case the creditors or committee of inspection shall have the same power of appointing a trustee in the place of the person so appointed by the court as in the case of a first appointment. (4) During any vacancy in the office of trustee the official receiver shall act as trustee.
Discretionary powers of trustee and control thereof.	81.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee shall, in the administration of the property of the bankrupt and in the distribution thereof amongst his creditors, have regard to any directions that may be given by resolution of the creditors at any general meeting or by the committee of inspection, and any direction so given by the creditors at any general meeting shall, in case of conflict, be deemed to override any directions given by the committee of inspection. (2) The trustee may from time to time summon general meetings of the creditors for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and he shall summon meetings at such times as the creditors, by resolution either at the meeting appointing the trustee or otherwise, may direct, and any creditor may, with the concurrence of one-sixth in value of the creditors (including himself), at any time request the trustee or official receiver to call a meeting of the creditors, and the trustee or official receiver shall call the meeting accordingly within fourteen days: Provided that the person at whose instance the meeting is summoned

	shall deposit with the trustee or the official receiver, as the case may be, a sum sufficient to pay the costs of summoning the meeting, that sum to be repaid to him out of the estate if the creditors or the court so direct. (3) The trustee may apply to the court in manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the bankruptcy. (4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution amongst the creditors.
Appeal to court against trustee's decision.	82. If the bankrupt or any of the creditors, or any other person, is aggrieved by any act or decision of the trustee, he may apply to the court, and the court may confirm, reverse or modify the act or decision complained of, and make such order in the premises as it thinks just.
Control of official receiver over trustees.	83. (1) The official receiver shall take cognizance of the conduct of trustees, and, in the event of any trustee not faithfully performing his duties and duly observing all the requirements imposed on him by Act, rules or otherwise with respect to the performance of his duties, or in the event of any complaint being made to the official receiver by any creditor in regard thereto, the official receiver shall inquire into the matter and take such action thereon as may be deemed expedient. (2) The official receiver may at any time require a trustee to answer any inquiry made by him in relation to any bankruptcy in which the trustee is engaged, and the official receiver may apply to the court to examine on oath the trustee or any other person concerning the bankruptcy. (3) The official receiver may also direct a local investigation to be made of the books and vouchers of the trustee.
Remuneration of trustee.	84. (1) Where the creditors appoint any person to be trustee of a debtor's estate, his remuneration (if any) shall be fixed by an ordinary resolution of the creditors, or, if the creditors so resolve, by the committee of inspection, and shall be in the nature of a commission or percentage, of which one part shall be payable on the amount realized by the trustee, after deducting any sums paid to secured creditors out of the proceeds of their securities, and the other part on the amount distributed in dividend; (2) If one-fourth in number or value of the creditors dissent from the resolution, or the bankrupt satisfies the court that the remuneration is unnecessarily large, the court shall fix the amount of the remuneration. (3) The resolution shall express what expenses the remuneration is to cover, and no liability shall attach to the bankrupt's estate, or to the creditors, in respect of any expenses which the remuneration is expressed to cover. (4) Where a trustee acts without remuneration, he shall be allowed out of the bankrupt's estate such proper expenses incurred by him in or about the proceedings of the bankruptcy as the creditors may, with the sanction of the court, approve. (5) A trustee shall not, under any circumstances whatever, make any arrangement for or accept from the bankrupt, or from any advocate, auctioneer or other person that may be employed about a bankruptcy, any gift, remuneration or pecuniary or other consideration or benefit whatever beyond the remuneration fixed by the creditors and payable out of the estate, nor shall he make any arrangement for giving up, or give up, any part of his remuneration, either as receiver, manager or trustee, to the bankrupt or any advocate or other person that may be employed about a bankruptcy.

Allowance and taxation of costs.	85.(1) Where a trustee or manager receives remuneration for his services as such, no payment shall be allowed in his accounts in respect of the performance by any other person of the ordinary duties which are required by this Act or rules thereunder to be performed by himself. (2) Where the trustee is an advocate, he may contract that the remuneration for his services as trustee shall include all professional services. (3) All bills and charges of advocates, managers, accountants, auctioneers, brokers and other persons, not being trustees, shall be taxed by the prescribed officer, and no payments in respect thereof shall be allowed in the trustee's accounts without proof of the taxation having been made. (4) The taxing officer shall satisfy himself before passing the bills and charges that the employment of the advocates and other persons, in respect of the particular matters out of which such charges arise, has been duly sanctioned; and the sanction must be obtained before the employment, except in case of urgency, and in such cases it must be shown that no undue delay took place in obtaining the sanction. (5) Every such person shall, on request by the trustee (which request the trustee shall make a sufficient time before declaring a dividend), deliver his bill of costs or charges to the proper officer for taxation, and, if he fails to do so within seven days after the receipt of the request, or such further time as the court on application may grant, the trustee shall declare and distribute the dividend without regard to any claim by him, and thereupon any such claim shall be forfeited as well against the trustee personally as against the estate.
Trustee to furnish list of creditors, 28 of 1961. Sch.	86.The trustee or official receiver shall, whenever required by any creditor so to do, furnish and transmit to him by post a list of the creditors showing the amount of the debt due to each creditor, on payment of fee of one shilling for every folio of one hundred words, but not less than five shillings in any case.
Trustee to furnish statement of accounts.	87.A creditor may, with the concurrence of one-sixth of the creditors (including himself), at any time call upon the trustee or official receiver to furnish and transmit to the creditors a statement of the accounts up to the date of the notice, and the trustee shall, upon receipt of the notice, furnish and transmit the statement of the accounts: Provided that the person at whose instance the accounts are furnished shall deposit with the trustee or official receiver, as the case may be, a sum sufficient to pay the costs of furnishing and transmitting the accounts, which sum shall be repaid to him out of the estate if the creditors or the court so direct.
Books to be kept by trustee.	88.The trustee shall keep, in manner prescribed, proper books, in which he shall from time to time cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings, at meetings, and of such other matters as may be prescribed, and any creditor of the bankrupt may, subject to the control of court, personally or by his agent, inspect any such books.
Annual statement of proceedings.	89.(1) Every trustee in a bankruptcy shall from time to time, as may be prescribed, and not less than once in every year during the continuance of the bankruptcy, transmit to the official receiver a statement showing the proceedings in the bankruptcy up to the date of the statement, containing the prescribed particulars and made out in the prescribed form. (2) The official receiver shall cause the statements so transmitted to be examined, and shall call the trustee to account for any misfeasance, neglect or omission which may appear on the statements or in his accounts or otherwise, and may require the trustee to make good any loss which the estate of the bankrupt may have sustained by the misfeasance, neglect or omission.

Trustee not to pay into private account.	90.No trustee in a bankruptcy or under any composition or scheme of arrangement shall pay any sums received by him as trustee into his private banking account.
Bankruptcy estates account.	91.(1) A bankruptcy estates account shall be kept by the official receiver with the prescribed bank, and all moneys received by him in respect of proceedings under this Act shall be paid to that account. (2) Every trustee in bankruptcy shall in such manner and at such times as the official receiver shall direct pay the money received by him to the bankruptcy estates account at the prescribed bank, and the official receiver shall furnish him with a certificate of receipt of the money so paid: Provided that— (i) if it appears to the committee of inspection that, for the purpose of carrying on the debtor's business or obtaining advances, or because of the probable amount of the cash balance, or if the committee satisfies the court that for any other reason it is for the advantage of the creditors that the trustee should have an account with the local bank, the court shall, on the application of the committee of inspection, authorize the trustee to make his payments into and out of such local bank as the committee may select; (ii) in any bankruptcy composition or scheme of arrangement in which the official receiver is acting as trustee, or in which a trustee is acting without a committee of inspection, the court may, if for special reasons it thinks fit to do so, upon the application of the official receiver or other trustee, authorize the trustee to make his payments into and out of such local bank as the court may direct. (3) Where the trustee opens an account in a local bank, he shall open and keep it in the name of the debtor's estate, and any interest receivable in respect of the account shall be part of the assets of the estate, and the trustee shall make his payments into and out of the local bank in the prescribed manner. (4) Subject to any rules relating to small bankruptcies under section 120, where the debtor at the date of the receiving order has an account at a bank, that account shall not be withdrawn until the expiration of seven days from the day appointed for the first meeting of creditors, unless the court, for the safety of the account or other sufficient cause, orders the withdrawal of the account. (5) If a trustee at any time retains for more than ten days a sum exceeding one thousand shillings, or such other amount as the court in any particular case authorizes him to retain, then, unless he explains the retention to the satisfaction of the court, he shall pay interest on the amount so retained in excess at the rate of twenty per centum per annum, and shall have no claim to remuneration, and may be removed from his office by the court, and shall be liable to pay any expenses occasioned by reason of his default.
Bankruptcy contingency fund. L.N.299/1956, L.N.172/1960, 21 of 1966, 1st Sch. Cap.167.	92.(1) Whenever the cash balance standing to the credit of the bankruptcy estates account is in excess of the amount which, in the opinion of the official receiver, is required to meet demands in respect of bankrupts' estates, the official receiver may place the balance or any part thereof to the credit of a separate account entitled the bankruptcy contingency fund (hereafter in this section referred to as the fund) at the prescribed bank. (2) The fund shall be under the control of a Board to be known as the

	Bankruptcy Contingency Fund Board (hereafter in this section referred to as the Board), which shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the Minister, and the members shall hold office during the Minister's pleasure. (3) The Board may in its discretion invest any money paid to the credit of the fund in any securities in which a trustee is authorized to invest under the Trustee Act. (4) All applications for leave to make payments out of the fund shall be made by the official receiver to the Board. (5) The Board may from time to time authorize payment to be made out of the fund to meet expenditure which it considers necessary and advisable to incur for the purpose of enabling the official receiver to carry out more efficiently the provisions of and his duties under this Act. (6) The moneys invested in the fund shall not at any time be reduced below the sum of twenty thousand shillings. (7) The Board may in its discretion order that the fund be reimbursed in whole or in part in the event of any money being recovered as a result of the expenditure so authorized.
Audit of trustee's accounts.	93.(1) Every trustee shall, at such times as may be prescribed, but not less than twice in each year during his tenure of office, send to the official receiver an account of his receipts and payments as trustee. (2) The account shall be in a prescribed form, shall be made in duplicate and shall be verified by a statutory declaration in the prescribed form. (3) The official receiver shall cause the accounts so sent to be audited, and, for the purposes of the audit, the trustee shall furnish the auditor with such vouchers and information as the auditor may require, and the auditor may at any time require the production of and inspect any books or accounts kept by the trustee. (4) When any such account has been audited, one copy thereof shall be filed and kept by the official receiver, and the other copy shall be filed with the court, and each copy shall be open to the inspection of any creditor, or of the bankrupt, or of any person interested.
Release of trustee.	94.(1) When the trustee has realized all the property of the bankrupt, or so much thereof as can, in his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the trusteeship, and distributed a final dividend, if any, or has ceased to act by reason of a composition having been approved, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the court shall, on his application, cause a report on his accounts to be prepared, and, on his complying with all the requirements of the court, shall take into consideration the report, and any objection which may be urged by any creditor or person interested against the release of the trustee, and shall either grant or withhold the release accordingly. (2) Where the release of a trustee is withheld, the court may, on the application of any creditor or person interested, make such order as it thinks just, charging the trustee with the consequences of any act or default he may have done or made contrary to his duty. (3) An order of the court releasing the trustee shall discharge him from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the affairs of the bankrupt, or otherwise in relation to his conduct as trustee, but any such order may be revoked on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact. (4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to the official receiver when he is, or is acting as, trustee, and when the official

	receiver has been released under this section he shall continue to act as trustee for any subsequent purposes of the administration of the debtor's estate, but no liability shall attach to him personally by reason of his so continuing in respect of any act done, default made or liability incurred before his release. (5) Where the trustee has not previously resigned or been removed, his release shall operate as a removal of him from his office, and thereupon the official receiver shall be the trustee. (6) Where, on the release of a trustee, the official receiver is, or is acting as, trustee, no liability shall attach to him personally in respect of any act done, default made or liability incurred by any prior trustee.
Office of trustee vacated by insolvency.	95.If a receiving order is made against a trustee, he shall thereby vacate his office of trustee.
Removal of trustee.	96.(1) The creditors may, by ordinary resolution, at a meeting specially called for that purpose of which seven days' notice has been given, remove a trustee appointed by them, and may, at the same or any subsequent meeting, appoint another person to fill the vacancy as hereinafter provided in case of a vacancy in the office of trustee. (2) If the court is of opinion— (a) that a trustee appointed by the creditors is guilty of misconduct or fails to perform his duties under this Act; or (b) that his trusteeship is being needlessly protracted without any probable advantage to the creditors; or (c) that he is by reason of lunacy, or continued sickness or absence, incapable of performing his duties; or (d) that his connexion with or relation to the bankrupt or his estate, or any particular creditor, might make it difficult for him to act with impartiality in the interest of the creditors generally, or where, in any other matter he has been removed from office on the ground of misconduct, the court may remove him from his office.
Jurisdiction in bankruptcy.	97.The court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy shall be the High Court: Provided that the Chief Justice may by order delegate all or any part of the jurisdiction of the High Court in bankruptcy to any subordinate court, either generally or for the purpose of any particular case or class of cases.
Judge may exercise his powers in chambers.	98.Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules thereunder, a judge of the court may exercise in chambers the whole or any part of his powers.
Official receiver to make payments in accordance with directions of court.	99.Where any moneys or funds have been received by the official receiver under this Act and the court makes an order declaring that any person is entitled to those moneys or funds, the official receiver shall make payment accordingly to that person.
General powers of court.	100.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the court shall have full power to decide all questions of priorities, and all other questions whatsoever, whether of law or of fact, which may arise in any case of bankruptcy coming within its cognizance, or which the court may deem it expedient or necessary to decide for the purpose of doing complete justice or making a complete distribution of property in any such case. (2) Where default is made by a trustee, debtor or other person in obeying any order or direction given by the official receiver, the court

	may on the application of the official receiver order the defaulting trustee, debtor or person to comply with the order or directions so given; and the court may also, if it thinks fit upon any such application, make an immediate order for the committal of the defaulting trustee, debtor or person: Provided that the power given by this subsection shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other right or remedy in respect of the default.
Disqualification of bankrupt. 21 of 1966, 1st Sch.	101.(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt, he shall be disqualified for— (a) being appointed or acting as a justice of the peace; or (b) being elected to, or holding or exercising, the office of mayor or member of local authority council, school committee or road board. (2) If a person is adjudged bankrupt whilst holding the office of justice of the peace, mayor, or member of a local authority council, school committee or road board, his office shall thereupon become vacant. (3) The disqualifications to which a bankrupt is subject under this section shall be removed and cease if and when— (a) the adjudication of bankruptcy against him is annulled; or (b) a period of five years has elapsed from the date of his discharge; or (c) he obtains from the court his discharge with a certificate to the effect that his bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part. (4) The court may grant or withhold a certificate as it thinks fit, but refusal of a certificate shall be subject to appeal.
Power to make receiving order in lieu of committal order.	102. Where application is made by a judgment-creditor to the court for the committal of a judgment-debtor, the court may, if it thinks fit, decline to commit, and in lieu thereof, with the consent of the judgment-creditor and on payment by him of the prescribed fee, make a receiving order against the debtor; and in such case the judgment-debtor shall be deemed to have committed an act of bankruptcy at the time the order is made, and the provisions of this Act shall apply as if for references to the presentation of a petition by or against a person there were substituted references to the making of such a receiving order.
Appeals in bankruptcy. 50 of 1956, s. 16.	103.(1) The court may at any time review, rescind or vary any order made by it. (2) Orders of the court in bankruptcy matters shall, at the instance of the person aggrieved, be subject to appeal, but no appeal shall be entertained except in conformity with such rules as may for the time being be in force in relation to the appeal. (3) Where by this Act an appeal to the court is given against a decision of the official receiver, the appeal shall be brought within twenty-one days from the time when the decision appealed against is pronounced or made.
Powers of court.	104.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules thereunder, the costs of and incidental to any proceeding in court under this Act shall be in the discretion of the court. (2) The court may at any time adjourn any proceedings before it upon such terms as it may think fit to impose. (3) The court may at any time amend any written process or proceeding under this Act upon such terms as it may think fit to impose. (4) Where by this Act, or by any rules thereunder, the time for doing any act is limited, the court may extend the time either before or after

	the expiration thereof upon such terms as it may think fit to impose. (5) Subject to any rules under this Act, the court may in any matter take the whole or any part of the evidence either viva voce or by interrogatories or upon affidavit or, out of Kenya, by commission.
Consolidation of petitions.	105. Where two or more bankruptcy petitions are presented against the same debtor or against joint debtors, the court may consolidate the proceedings, or any of them, on such terms as the court thinks fit.
Power to change carriage of proceedings.	106. Where the petitioner does not proceed with due diligence on his petition, the court may substitute as petitioner any other creditor to whom the debtor may be indebted in the amount required by this Act in the case of the petitioning creditor.
Continuance of proceedings on death of debtor.	107. If a debtor by or against whom a bankruptcy petition has been presented dies, the proceedings in the matter shall, unless the court otherwise orders, be continued as if he were alive.
Power to stay proceedings.	108. The court may at any time, for sufficient reason, make an order staying the proceedings under a bankruptcy petition, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the court may think just.
Power to present petition against one partner.	109. Any creditor whose debt is sufficient to entitle him to present a bankruptcy petition against all the partners of a firm may present a petition against any one or more partners of the firm without including the others.
Power to dismiss petition against some respondents only.	110. Where there are more respondents than one to a petition, the court may dismiss the petition as to one or more of them, without prejudice to the effect of the petition as against the other or others of them.
Property of partners to be vested in same trustee.	111. Where a receiving order has been made on a bankruptcy petition by or against one member of a partnership, any other bankruptcy petition by or against a member of the same partnership shall be filed with the first-mentioned petition, and, unless the court otherwise directs, the same trustee or receiver shall be appointed as may have been appointed in respect of the property of the first-mentioned member of the partnership, and the court may give such directions for consolidating the proceedings as it thinks just.
Actions by trustee and bankrupt's partners.	112. Where a member of a partnership is adjudged bankrupt, the court may authorize the trustee to commence and prosecute any action in the names of the trustee and of the bankrupt's partner; and any release by a partner of the debt or demand to which the action relates shall be void; but notice of the application for authority to commence the action shall be given to him, and he may show cause against it, and on his application the court may, if it thinks fit, direct that he shall receive his proper share of the proceeds of the action, and if he does not claim any benefit therefrom he shall be indemnified against costs in respect thereof as the court directs.
Actions on joint contracts.	113. Where a bankrupt is a contractor in respect of any contract jointly with any person or persons, that person or those persons may sue or be sued in respect of the contract without the joinder of the bankrupt.
Proceedings in partnership name.	114. Any two or more persons, being partners, or any person carrying on business under a partnership name, may take proceedings or be proceeded

	against under this Act in the name of the firm, but in that case the court may, on application by any person interested, order the names of the persons who are partners in the firm or the name of that person to be disclosed in such manner, and verified on oath or otherwise, as the court may direct.
Court to be auxiliary to other Commonwealth courts. 21 of 1966, 1st. Sch.	115.The court and all the officers thereof shall, in all matters of bankruptcy, act in aid of and be auxiliary to every Commonwealth court elsewhere having jurisdiction in bankruptcy or insolvency, and an order of the court seeking aid, with a request to this court, shall be deemed sufficient to enable this court to exercise, in regard to the matters directed by the order, such jurisdiction as either the court which made the request or this court could exercise in regard to similar matters within their respective jurisdiction, save that, to enable the official receiver of Kenya to act as the agent of an officer of a reciprocating court or to enable an officer of this court to seek the aid of an official receiver of a reciprocating court in the manner provided in Part IX, it shall not be necessary for this court or any reciprocating court to make any order or send any request under this section.
Commitment to prison	116.Where the court commits any person to prison, the commitment may be to such convenient prison as the court thinks expedient, and, if the gaoler of any prison refuses to receive any prisoner so committed, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings.
Married women.	117.Every married woman shall be subject to the law relating to bankruptcy as if she were feme-sole.
Companies Cap. 486.	118.A receiving order shall not be made against any corporation or against any association or company registered under the Companies Act or any enactment repealed by that Act.
Limited partnerships.	119.Subject to such modifications as may be made by rules under section 122, this Act shall apply to limited partnerships in the same manner as if limited partnerships were ordinary partnerships, and, on all the general partners of a limited partnership being adjudged bankrupt, the assets of the limited partnership shall vest in the trustee in bankruptcy.
Small Estates. 50 of 1956, s.17.	Small Estates 120.Where a petition is presented by or against a debtor, if the court is satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, or the official receiver reports to the court, that the property of the debtor is not likely to exceed in value twelve thousand shillings, the court may make an order that the debtors estate be administered in a summary manner, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the following modifications— (a) if the debtor is adjudged bankrupt the official receiver shall be the trustee in the bankruptcy; (b) there shall be no committee of inspection, but the official receiver

may do all things which may be done by the trustee with the permission of the committee of inspection;

(c) such other modifications may be made in the provisions of this Act as may be prescribed with a view to saving expense and simplifying procedure, but nothing in this section shall permit the modification of the provisions of this Act relating to the examination or discharge of the debtor:

Provided that the creditors may at any time, by special resolution, resolve that some person other than the official receiver be appointed trustee in the bankruptcy, and thereupon the bankruptcy shall proceed as if an order for summary administration had not been made.

Administration
in bankruptcy of estate of person dying insolvent. 50 of
1956,s.18

Persons Dying Insolvent

121.(1) Any creditor of a deceased debtor whose debt would have been sufficient to support a bankruptcy petition against the debtor had he been alive may present to the court a petition in the prescribed form praying for an order for the administration of the estate of the deceased debtor, according to the law of bankruptcy.

(2) Upon the prescribed notice being given to the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor, the court may, in the prescribed manner, upon proof of the petitioner's debt, unless the court is satisfied that there is a reasonable probability that the estate will be sufficient for the payment of the debts owing by the deceased, make an order for the administration in bankruptcy of the deceased debtor's estate, or may, upon cause shown, dismiss the petition with or without costs.

(3) Upon an order being made for the administration of a deceased debtor's estate, the property of the debtor shall vest in the official receiver as trustee thereof, and he shall forthwith proceed to realize and distribute it in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that the creditors shall have the same powers as to appointment of trustees and committees of inspection as they have in other cases where the estate of a debtor is being administered or dealt with in bankruptcy, and the provisions of this Act relating to trustees and committees of inspection shall apply to trustees and committees of inspection appointed under the power so conferred.

(4) If a trustee other than the official receiver is appointed and no committee of inspection is appointed, then any act or thing or any direction or permission which might have been done or given by a committee of inspection may be done or given by the court.

(5) With the modifications hereinafter mentioned, all the provisions of Part III and, subject to any modification that may be prescribed, section 28 (which relates to inquiries as to the debtor's conduct, dealings and property), section 85 (which relates to the costs of the trustees, managers and other persons), section 120 (which relates to the summary administration of small estates) and subsection (4) of section 94 so far as it relates to the effect of the release of the official receiver, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to the case of an administration order under this section in the same manner as to an order of adjudication under this Act, and section 40 shall apply as if for the reference to an order of adjudication there were substituted a reference to an administration order under this section.

(6) In the administration of the property of the deceased debtor under an order of administration, the official receiver or trustee shall have regard to any claim by the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor to payment of the proper funeral and testamentary expenses and death-bed charges, including fees for medical attendance, and board and lodging for one month before the debtor's death, incurred by him in and about the debtor's estate, and those claims shall be deemed a preferential debt under the order, and shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the provisions of this Act relating to the priority of other debts, be payable in full out of the debtor's estate in priority to all other debts.

(7) If, on the administration of a deceased debtor's estate, any surplus remains in the hands of the official receiver or trustee after payment in full of all the debts due from the debtor, together with the costs of the administration and interest as provided by this Act in case of bankruptcy, that surplus shall be paid over to the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor's estate, or dealt with in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(8) Notice to the legal personal representative of a deceased debtor of the presentation by a creditor of a petition under this section shall, in the event of an order for administration being made thereon, be deemed to be equivalent to notice of an act of bankruptcy, and after the notice no payment or transfer of property made by the legal personal representative shall operate as a discharge to him as between himself and the official receiver or trustee; but save as aforesaid nothing in this section shall invalidate any payment made or any act or thing done in good faith by the legal personal representative before the date of the order for administration.

(9) A petition for the administration of the estate of a deceased debtor under this section may be presented by the legal personal representative of the debtor, and, where a petition is so presented, this section shall apply subject to such modifications as may be prescribed.

(10) Except where the context otherwise requires, "creditor" means one or more creditors qualified to present a bankruptcy petition as provided in this Act.

(11) Rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this section may be made in the same manner and to the same effect and extent as in bankruptcy.

Power to make rules 50 of 1956, s.19 1 of 1926.

Rules

122.(1) The Rules Committee, with the addition of the official receiver, may make rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Act, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make rules—

(a) prescribing the court to which a bankruptcy petition shall be presented, and, where a petition is to be presented to the High Court, prescribing the registry of the High Court to which such petition shall be presented; and

	(b) providing for and regulating the transfer of any proceedings in bankruptcy from one registry of the High Court to another or from one court to another court competent to try or dispose of the same: Provided that nothing in this section or in any rule made hereunder shall invalidate a proceeding by reason of its being taken in the wrong court or in the wrong registry of the High Court if the court in which that proceeding is taken would, but for the provisions of any rules made hereunder, be competent to try or dispose of the same. (2) The Bankruptcy Rules made under the Bankruptcy Ordinance, 1925 (now repealed), shall remain in force and shall be deemed to be rules made under this Act: Provided that those Rules may be altered or revoked either wholly, partially or in any particular by rules made under this Act by the Rules Committee or by the Chief Justice, as the case may be, and the court may construe those Rules with such verbal alterations not affecting the substance as may be deemed necessary to render them applicable to local circumstances and to any matters before the court, so long as the construction or alteration is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.
Fees and percentages 50 of 1956, s.20	123. The Chief Justice may make rules prescribing a scale of fees and percentages to be charged for or in respect of proceedings under this Act.
Remuneration 50 of 1956, s.21.	Remuneration 124. The Chief Justice shall direct whether any and what remuneration is to be allowed to any person (other than the official receiver or his staff) performing any duties under this Act, and may vary, increase or diminish that remuneration as he may think fit.
Gazette to be evidence.	Evidence 125.(1) A copy of the Gazette containing any notice inserted therein in pursuance of this Act shall be evidence of the facts stated in the notice. (2) The production of a copy of the Gazette containing any notice of a receiving order, or of an order adjudging a debtor bankrupt, shall be conclusive evidence in all legal proceedings of the order having been duly made, and of its date.
Evidence of proceedings at meetings of creditors.	126.(1) A minute of proceedings at a meeting of creditors under this Act, signed at the same or the next ensuing meeting, by a person describing himself as, or appearing to be, chairman of the meeting at which the minute is signed, shall be received in evidence without further proof. (2) Until the contrary is proved, every meeting of creditors in respect of the proceedings whereof a minute has been so signed shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all resolutions passed or proceedings had thereat to have been duly passed or had.

Evidence of proceedings in bankruptcy.	127. Any petition or copy of a petition in bankruptcy, any order or certificate or copy of an order or certificate made by the court and any instrument or copy of an instrument, affidavit or document made or used in the course of any bankruptcy proceedings or other proceedings had under this Act shall, if it appears to be sealed with the seal of the court or purports to be signed by any judge thereof, or is certified as a true copy by any registrar thereof, be receivable in evidence in all legal proceedings whatever.
Swearing of affidavits. 15 of 1961, Sch., 21 of 1966, 1st Sch.	128. Subject to any rules made under this Act, any affidavit to be used in the court may be sworn before any person authorized to administer oaths in the court, or before a magistrate or a justice of the peace for the district where it is sworn, or, in the case of a person residing out of Kenya, before any person qualified to administer oaths in the country where he resides (he being certified to be so qualified by a Kenya Consular Officer or pro-consul, or by a Commonwealth Consular officer or pro-consul or by a notary public).
Death of debtor or witness.	129. In the case of the death of the debtor or his wife, or of a witness whose evidence has been received by the court in any proceeding under this Act, the deposition of the person so deceased, purporting to be sealed with the seal of the court, or a copy thereof purporting to be so sealed, shall be admitted as evidence of the matters therein deposed to.
Certificate of appointment of trustee.	130. A certificate of the court that a person has been appointed trustee under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of his appointment.
Computation of time.	Miscellaneous 131.(1) Where by this Act any limited time from or after any date or event is appointed or allowed for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding, then in the computation of that limited time it shall be taken as exclusive of the day of that date or of the happening of that event, and as commencing at the beginning of the next following day; and the act or proceeding shall be done or taken at latest on the last day of that limited time as so computed, unless the last day is a Sunday or a public holiday or a day on which the offices of the court are wholly closed, in which case any act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards which is not one of the days specified in this section. (2) Where by this Act the time limited for doing any act or thing is less than six days, a Sunday, public holiday and any other day on which the offices of the court are wholly closed shall be excluded in computing that time. (3) Where by this Act any act or proceeding is directed to be done or taken on a certain day, then, if that day happens to be one of the days specified in this section, the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards which is not one of the days specified in this section.

Service of notices.	132.All notices and other documents for the service of which no special mode is directed may be sent by post to the last known address of the person to be served therewith.
Formal defect not to invalidate proceedings.	133.(1) No proceeding in bankruptcy shall be invalidated by any formal defect or by any irregularity, unless the court before which an objection is made to the proceeding is of opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by the defect or irregularity, and that the injustice cannot be remedied by any order of the court. (2) No defect or irregularity in the appointment or election of a receiver, trustee or member of a committee of inspection shall vitiate any act done by him in good faith.
Exemption of deeds from stamp duty.	134.(1) Every deed, conveyance, assignment or other assurance relating solely to freehold or leasehold property, or to any mortgage, charge or other encumbrance on, or any estate, right or interest in, any movable or immovable property which is part of the estate of any bankrupt, and which, after the execution of the deed, conveyance, assignment or other assurance, either at law or in equity, is or remains the estate of the bankrupt or of the trustee under the bankruptcy, and every power of attorney, proxy, paper, writ, order, certificate, affidavit, bond or other instrument or writing relating solely to the property of any bankrupt or to any proceeding under any bankruptcy, shall be exempt from stamp duty, except in respect of fees under this Act. (2) For the purposes of this section, "bankruptcy" includes any proceeding under this Act whether before or after adjudication, and "bankrupt" includes any debtor proceeded against under this Act.
Acting of corporations, partners, etc.	135.For all or any of the purposes of this Act, a corporation may act by any of its officers authorized in that behalf under the seal of the corporation, and a firm may act by any of its members, and a lunatic may act by his guardian or the appointed manager of his estate.
Certain provisions to bind Government. 21 of 1966, 1st Sch.	136.Save as provided in this Act, the provisions of this Act relating to the remedies against the property of a debtor, the priorities of debts, the effect of a composition or scheme of arrangement and the effect of a discharge shall bind the Government.
Unclaimed and undistributed dividends or funds. 20 of 1955, s. 2, 21 of 1961, Sch. Cap.54.	Unclaimed Funds or Dividends 137.(1) Where the trustee, under any bankruptcy composition or scheme pursuant to this Act has under his control any unclaimed dividend which has remained unclaimed for more than six months, or where, after making a final dividend, he has in his hands or under his control any unclaimed or undistributed money arising from the property of the debtor, he shall forthwith pay it to the bankruptcy estates account at the prescribed bank; and the official receiver shall furnish him with a certificate of receipt of the money so paid, which shall be an effectual discharge to him in respect thereof. (2) Where any unclaimed or undistributed funds or dividends in the hands or under the control of any trustee or other person empowered to collect, receive or distribute any funds or dividends under the Deeds or Arrangement Act have remained or remain unclaimed or undistributed for six months after they become claimable or distributable, or in any other case for two years after the receipt thereof by the trustee or other person, the trustee or other person shall forthwith pay them to the bankruptcy estates account at the prescribed bank; and the official receiver shall furnish the trustee or other person with a certificate or receipt of the money so paid, which shall be an effectual discharge to him in respect thereof.

(3) The official receiver may at any time order any such trustee or other person to submit to him an account verified by affidavit of the sums received and paid by him as aforesaid, and may direct and enforce an audit of the account.

(4) The official receiver may from time to time appoint a person to collect and get in all such unclaimed or undistributed funds or dividends, and for the purposes of this section the court shall have and, at the instance of the official receiver, may exercise all the powers conferred by this Act with respect to the discovery and realization of the property of a debtor, and the provisions of Part II with respect thereto shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to proceedings under this section.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not, except as expressly declared herein, deprive any person of any larger or other right or remedy to which he may be entitled against such trustee or other person.

(6) Where any unclaimed dividends or undistributed money paid into the bankruptcy estates account in pursuance of this section have remained in that account for a period of two years, the official receiver shall transfer that money to the credit of the bankruptcy contingency fund.

(7) Any person claiming to be entitled to any money paid in to the bankruptcy estates account or the bankruptcy contingency fund pursuant to this section may apply to the official receiver for payment of it to him, and the official receiver, if satisfied that the person claiming is so entitled, shall make an order for the payment to that person of the sum due; and if the money claimed has been paid to the credit of the bankruptcy contingency fund and that fund is insufficient to meet the sum required to be paid, the deficiency shall be met by the Permanent Secretary to the Treasury and shall be charged upon and paid out of the consolidated fund.

(8) Any person dissatisfied with the decision of the official receiver in respect of his claim may appeal to the court.

PART VIII—BANKRUPTCY OFFENCES

138.(1) Any person who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made shall in each of the cases following be guilty of an offence—

(a) if he does not to the best of his knowledge and belief fully and truly discover to the trustee all his property, movable and immovable, and how and to whom and for what consideration and when he disposed of any part thereof, except such part as has been disposed of in the property.

Omission in statement of affairs. Not informing trustee of false claim.
Preventing production of books or documents.
Destruction, etc., of books or documents.
False entries in books or documents
Parting with, alteration, etc., of documents.
Accounting for property by fictitious losses.
Obtaining property on credit by fraud.
Obtaining property on credit on pretence of carrying on business.
Pawning property obtained on credit.
Obtaining consent of creditors by fraud. Default in payment.
Trading when insolvent.
Selling goods below cost price.
Improper contracting of debt.
Cap.63.

ordinary way of his trade (if any) or laid out in the ordinary expense of his family, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(b) if he does not deliver up to the trustee, or as he directs, all such part of his movable and immovable property as is in his custody or under his control, and which he is required by law to deliver up, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(c) if he does not deliver up to the trustee, or as he directs, all books, documents, papers and writings relating to his property or affairs, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(d) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within two years next before presentation, he conceals any part of his property to the value of two hundred shillings or upwards, or conceals any debt due to or from him, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(e) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within two years next before presentation, he fraudulently removes any part of his property to the value of two hundred shillings or upwards;

(f) if he makes any material omission in any statement relating to his affairs, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(g) if, knowing or believing that a false debt has been proved by any person under the bankruptcy, he fails for the period of a month to inform the trustee thereof;

(h) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, he prevents the production of any book, document, paper or writing affecting or relating to his property or affairs, unless he proves that he had no intent to conceal the state of his affairs or to defeat the law;

(i) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within two years next before presentation, he conceals, destroys, mutilates or falsifies, or is privy to the concealment, destruction, mutilation or falsification of, any book or document affecting or relating to his property or affairs, unless he proves that he had no intent to conceal the state of his affairs or to defeat the law;

(j) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within two years next before presentation, he makes or is privy to the making of any false entry in any book or document affecting or relating to his property or affairs, unless he proves that he had no intent to conceal the state of his affairs or to defeat the law;

(k) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within two years next before presentation, he fraudulently parts with, alters or makes any omission in, or is privy to fraudulently parting with, altering or making any omission in, any document affecting or relating to his property or affairs;

(l) if, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or at any meeting of his creditors within two years next before presentation, he attempts to account for any part of his property by fictitious losses or expenses;

(m) if, within two years next before the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition and before the making of a receiving order, he, by any false representation or other fraud, has obtained any property on credit and has not paid for it;

(n) if, within two years next before the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition and before the making of a receiving order, he obtains under the false pretence of carrying on business, and, if a trader, of dealing in the ordinary way of his trade, any property on credit and has not paid for it, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(o) if, within two years next before the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition and before the making of a receiving order, he pawns, pledges or disposes of any property which he has obtained on credit and has not paid for, unless, in the case of a trader, the pawning, pledging or disposing is in the ordinary way of his trade, and unless in any case he proves that he had no intent to defraud;

(p) if he is guilty of any false representation or other fraud for the purpose of obtaining the consent of his creditors or any of them to an agreement with reference to his affairs or to his bankruptcy;

(q) if he makes default in payment for the benefit of creditors of any portion of a salary or other income in respect of the payment of which the court is authorized to make an order;

(r) if, within one year immediately preceding the date of the making of the receiving order, he has continued to trade or carry on business, after knowing himself to be insolvent;

(s) if, within six months before the making of a receiving order, he sells goods at a price lower than cost, unless he proves that he had no intention to defraud his creditors;

(t) if he has contracted any debt provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting it any reasonable or probable ground of expectation (proof whereof shall lie on him) of being able to pay it, and, for the purpose of this subsection, "trustee" means the official receiver of the debtor's estate or trustee administering his estate for the benefit of his creditors.

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, except in the cases mentioned respectively in paragraphs (m), (n) and (o) thereof, when he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five

	years. (3) Where any person pawns, pledges or disposes of any property in circumstances which amount to an offence under paragraph (o) of subsection (1), every person who takes in pawn or pledge or otherwise receives the property knowing it to be pawned, pledged or disposed of in those circumstances shall be guilty of an offence and liable to be punished in the same way as if he had received the property knowing it to have been obtained in circumstances amounting to a felony under section 322 of the Penal Code.
Undischarged bankrupt obtaining credit.	139. Where a person who has been adjudged bankrupt or insolvent in Kenya or any reciprocating territory and has not obtained his discharge— (a) either alone or jointly with any other person obtains credit to the extent of one hundred shillings or upwards from any person without informing that person that he is an undischarged bankrupt; or (b) engages in any trade or business under a name other than that under which he was adjudicated bankrupt without disclosing to all persons with whom he enters into any business transaction the name under which he was adjudicated bankrupt, he shall be guilty of an offence.
Frauds by bankrupts, etc.	140.(1) If any person who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made— (a) in incurring any debt or liability has obtained credit under false pretences or by means of any other fraud; or (b) with intent to defraud his creditors or any of them, has made or caused to be made any gift or transfer of, or charge on, his property; or (c) with intent to defraud his creditors, has concealed or removed any part of his property since, or within two months before, the date of any unsatisfied judgment or order for payment of money obtained against him, he shall be guilty of an offence. (2) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) if any person who has been adjudged bankrupt, or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made, has with intent to defraud his creditors or any of them caused or connived at the levying of any execution against his property he shall be deemed to have made a transfer of or charge on his property.
Bankrupt guilty of gambling, etc.	141.(1) Any person who has been adjudged bankrupt, or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made, shall be guilty of an offence if, having been engaged in any trade or business, and having outstanding at the date of the receiving order any debts contracted in the course and for the purposes of that trade or business— (a) he has, within two years prior to the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, materially contributed to or increased the extent of his insolvency by gambling or by rash and hazardous speculations, and the gambling or speculations are unconnected with his trade or business; or

(b) he has, between the date of the presentation of the petition and the date of the receiving order, lost any part of his estate by gambling or rash and hazardous speculations as aforesaid; or

(c) on being required by the official receiver at any time, or in the course of his public examination by the court, to account for the loss of any substantial part of his estate incurred within a period of a year next preceding the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, or between that date and the date of the receiving order, he fails to give a satisfactory explanation of the manner in which the loss was incurred:

Provided that, in determining for the purposes of this subsection whether any speculations were rash and hazardous, the financial position of the accused person at the time when he entered into the speculations shall be taken into consideration.

(2) A prosecution shall not be instituted against any person under this section except by order of the court.

Bankrupt
failing to keep proper accounts.

142.(1) Any person who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made shall be guilty of an offence if, having been engaged in any trade or business during any period in the three years immediately preceding the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, he has not kept proper books of account throughout that period and throughout any further period in which he was so engaged between the date of the presentation of the petition and the date of the receiving order, or has not preserved all books of account so kept:

Provided that a person who has not kept or has not preserved books of account shall not be convicted of an offence under this section—

(i) if his unsecured liabilities at the date of the receiving order did not exceed, in the case of a person who has not on any previous occasion been adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors in Kenya or any reciprocating territory, five thousand shillings, or in any other case one thousand shillings; or

(ii) if he proves that in the circumstances in which he traded or carried on business the omission was honest and excusable.

(2) A prosecution shall not be instituted against any person under this section except by order of the court.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed not to have kept proper books of account if he has not kept such books or accounts as are necessary to exhibit or explain his transactions and financial position in his trade or business, including a book or books containing entries from day to day in sufficient detail of all cash received and cash paid, and, where the trade or business has involved dealings in goods, statements of annual stock takings, and (except in the case of goods sold by way of retail trade to the actual consumer) accounts of all goods sold and purchased showing the buyers and sellers thereof in sufficient detail to enable the goods and the buyers and sellers thereof to be identified.

Bankrupt absconding. 50 of 1956, s.23, 19 of 1964, Sch.	143.If any person who is adjudged bankrupt, or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within six months before presentation, quits Kenya, or attempts or makes preparation to quit Kenya, he shall (unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud) be guilty of an offence.
False claims, etc, and burden of proof.	144.If any creditor, or any person claiming to be a creditor, in any bankruptcy proceedings, makes any false claim, or any proof, declaration or statement of account, which is untrue in any material particular, he shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves that he had no intention to defraud.
Order by court for prosecution on report of trustee.	145.Where an official receiver or trustee in a bankruptcy reports to the court that in his opinion a debtor who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made has been guilty of any offence under this Act, or where the court is satisfied upon the representation of any creditor or member of the committee of inspection that there is ground to believe that the debtor has been guilty of any such offence, the court shall, if it appears to the court that there is a reasonable probability that the debtor will be convicted, and that the circumstances are such as to render a prosecution desirable, order that the debtor be prosecuted for the offence.
Criminal liability after discharge or composition	146.Where a debtor has been guilty of any criminal offence, he shall not be exempt from being proceeded against therefor by reason that he has obtained his discharge or that a composition or scheme of arrangement has been accepted or approved.
General penalty.	147.A person guilty of an offence under this Act in respect of which no special penalty is imposed by this Act shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.
Form of charge.	148.In a charge for an offence under this Act, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged in the words of this Act specifying the offence, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, without alleging or setting forth any debt, act of bankruptcy, trading or adjudication, or any proceedings in, or order, warrant or document of, the court acting under this Act.
Attorney-General to act in certain cases.	149.Where the court orders the prosecution of any person for any offence under this Act or for any offence arising out of or connected with any bankruptcy proceedings, the Attorney-General shall institute and carry on the prosecution: Provided that, where the order of the court is made on the application of the official receiver and based on his report, the official receiver may institute the prosecution and carry on the proceedings, if or so long as those proceedings are conducted before a subordinate court, unless in the course thereof circumstances arise which render it desirable that

	the remainder of the proceedings should be carried on by the Attorney-General.
Evidence as to frauds by agents.	150.A statement or admission made by any person in any compulsory examination or deposition before the court on the hearing of any matter in bankruptcy shall not be admissible as evidence against that person in any proceeding in respect of any offence relating to frauds by agents, bankers or factors.
Declaration of reciprocating territories and courts. L.N.299/1956, L.N.172/1960.	PART IX—PROVISIONS FOR RECIPROCITY WITH OTHER TERRITORIES 151.Where the Minister is satisfied that the legislature of any territory the court of which having jurisdiction in bankruptcy is subordinate to the Court of Appeal has enacted provisions for reciprocity in bankruptcy which in that territory have the like effect as the provisions contained in this Part, he may by order in the Gazette declare that territory to be a reciprocating territory, and the court thereof having jurisdiction in bankruptcy a reciprocating court for the purposes of this Act, and the provisions of this Part shall then apply to all bankruptcy proceedings subsequently instituted in the declared territory against a debtor having property in Kenya.
Effect of receiving order, etc., made by reciprocating court against debtor with property in Kenya.	152.Where a receiving order or order of adjudication or any appointment of a special manager or interim receiver has been made in any reciprocating territory in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor having property in Kenya, the order or appointment shall, subject to the other provisions of this Part, have the same effect as if it had been made in bankruptcy proceedings against the debtor in Kenya, and the debtor and his creditors shall be deemed to be in the same position and have the same rights and privileges, and be subject to the same disqualifications, restrictions, obligations and liabilities, in every respect as if the order or appointment had been made under this Act.
Vesting of bankrupt's property in trustee appointed in reciprocating territory.	153.Where an order of adjudication is made by a reciprocating court, the property of the bankrupt situated in Kenya shall, by virtue of that order, vest in the person from time to time discharging the office of trustee of the property of the bankrupt in the reciprocating territory, in the same manner as if the order of adjudication and the appointment of trustee had been made in Kenya, and the superintendence of the trustee shall continue to be exercised by the committee of inspection appointed in the reciprocating territory or, if there be no such committee, by the reciprocating court.
Powers of official receiver, etc., appointed in reciprocating territory.	154.The official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating territory officiating in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor having property in Kenya shall, subject to the control of the court by which he is appointed, be solely responsible for conducting those proceedings, and managing the affairs of the debtor or bankrupt within Kenya, and for such purposes shall, each in his respective capacity, have the same powers, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities as if he had derived his authority under this Act; and in any such proceedings where by this Act a debtor, creditor or other person interested is required to do any act at the direction of an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee, or is permitted by this Act to move in any matter in connexion with those proceedings, every such debtor, creditor or person interested shall do the act at the direction of, and in all such matters treat and negotiate with or proceed against, the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee as the case may be of the reciprocating territory, except in so far as any such official may have delegated his authority to the official receiver of Kenya as his agent in the manner hereinafter provided.

Official receiver to act as agent of official receiver, etc., of reciprocating territory.

155. Every official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating territory officiating in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor having property in Kenya may require the official receiver of Kenya to act as his agent either in regard to any specific matter, or generally to take all such steps as may be lawful under this Act for the discovery, seizure, protection, disclaimer or realization of any property of the bankrupt situated within Kenya, and in such event the official receiver of Kenya shall act accordingly.

Mode of requesting official receiver to act as agent. 50 of 1956, s. 24.

156.(1) Every request to act as agent under section 155 shall be made in the manner prescribed under this Act, and shall be published as a notice in the Gazette, and as from the date of the request and without further formality or authority the official receiver shall, as regards the debtor or bankrupt and his property and creditors situated in Kenya and for the purposes for which he is authorized, have the same rights, powers and duties as are conferred under the provisions of this Act upon an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee as the case may be:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the official receiver any interest or title in any such property otherwise than as an agent as aforesaid.

(2) On the receipt of the prescribed request, the official receiver shall file with the Registrar of the High Court the original or a properly authenticated copy of the request, and upon such filing the court shall take judicial notice of the appointment as agent under the provisions of this Part.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the official receiver may, in any case in which it is made to appear to him that immediate action is desirable, commence discharging his duties as agent in any manner applicable to the circumstances, if upon receipt of a telegraphic or other information he is satisfied that-

(a) bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating territory against a debtor having property in Kenya; and

(b) the prescribed request for him to act has been signed and despatched; and

(c) he has been indemnified against all costs, charges and expenses to be incurred by him.

(4) Unless the contrary intention appears, every request to act as agent sent to the official receiver of Kenya shall be deemed to permit him to delegate at his discretion the powers and duties vested in him as agent to any deputy official receiver appointed in pursuance of this Act.

Duties of official receiver acting as agent.	157. The official receiver of Kenya shall remit the proceeds of the realization of the property of the bankrupt, and all other money of the estate coming into his hands as agent, to the person for whom he is acting, after deducting such expenses as may have been properly incurred by him; and the distribution among the creditors of all such money shall be carried out in accordance with the law of the reciprocating territory in which the adjudication order was made.
Transmission of proofs of debts.	158. Where a receiving order or an order of adjudication has been made in a reciprocating territory and the official receiver of Kenya is acting as agent in the manner hereinbefore provided, proofs of debts contracted by the debtor in Kenya may be filed with the local official receiver in the form prescribed by the law of the reciprocating territory, and in every such case it shall be his duty to receive, deal with and forward in the manner prescribed by rules made under this Part such proofs to the official receiver or trustee, as the case may be, of the reciprocating territory.
Power of court to make orders under sections 11 and 26.	159. If, on the application of the official receiver or any creditor or other person interested, it appears to the court that bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating court against a debtor having property situated in Kenya, the court may, notwithstanding that no such proceedings have been instituted in Kenya, exercise as regards the person, property and affairs of the debtor all the powers conferred by sections 11 and 26 as may in the circumstances be applicable.
Limitation on powers of court to entertain proceedings.	160. Any order, warrant or search warrant made or issued by a reciprocating court shall be enforced by the court of Kenya in the same manner in all respects as if the order, warrant or search warrant had been made or issued by itself.
Enforcement of warrants of reciprocating court.	161. Subject to the other provisions of this section, a reciprocating court shall have sole jurisdiction in all matters in or arising out of any bankruptcy proceedings taken before that court against a debtor having property in Kenya, and no court in Kenya shall entertain any suit, application or other matter arising in or out of those proceedings except— (a) upon the institution of any proceedings by or against the local official receiver in respect of any matters within the scope of his authority in the capacity of agent; (b) in the case of any civil suit or proceedings within the ordinary civil jurisdiction of the court by or against the official receiver, interim receiver, trustee or special manager of or appointed in a reciprocating territory; (c) upon the institution of any proceedings affecting the property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in Kenya; (d) upon the receipt of a request to act in aid of or be auxiliary to the reciprocating court;

(e) for the public examination of the debtor in regard only to his property situated within Kenya or his dealings with any person ordinarily resident or carrying on business in Kenya:

Provided that the public examination shall not be held until the public examination before the reciprocating court has been concluded or adjourned sine die;

(f) for the exercise of powers under Part VIII in relation only to bankruptcy offences alleged to have been committed within Kenya;

(g) upon the institution of any proceedings for or arising out of the enforcement or execution of any order, warrant or search warrant made or issued by a reciprocating court; or

(h) upon an application for the exercise of the powers conferred on the court by sections 11, 26, 27 and 55.

Concurrent bankruptcies. 50 of 1956, s.25.

162.(1) For the purposes of this section, "concurrent bankruptcy proceedings" means bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings instituted concurrently against the same debtor in any two or more reciprocating territories, one of which may or may not be in Kenya.

(2) Where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted affecting property in Kenya, all such property shall vest in the trustee appointed in the territory where the order of adjudication first is made; but if two or more such orders bear the same date or if for any reason no such adjudication order is made then the property shall vest in or be administered by the trustee or receiver of the territory where the receiving order first is made.

(3) In any case where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in Kenya and in pursuance of subsections (1) and (4) the property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in Kenya vests in or is administered by a trustee or receiver in a reciprocating territory, the court shall rescind its receiving order and annul its order of adjudication, if made, or dismiss the petition upon such terms, if any, as the court may think fit; but the rescission of a receiving order or an annulment of adjudication under this subsection shall not invalidate any acts lawfully done by the receiver or trustee of Kenya or any other person lawfully acting under the authority of either of them.

(4) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, in any case where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in Kenya the court may, after such inquiry and reference to such reciprocating courts as it deems fit, order that the property of the debtor situated in Kenya shall vest in or be administered by a trustee or receiver in Kenya or in some reciprocating territory other than that determined under the provisions of subsection (1) if, upon an application by the official receiver or any creditor or other person interested, it appears that a majority of the creditors in number and value are resident in Kenya or the other reciprocating territory, and that from the situation of the property of the debtor or bankrupt or other causes his estate and effects may be more conveniently administered, managed and distributed in Kenya or the other reciprocating territory.

Power of official receiver, etc., to require official receiver in reciprocating territory to act as his agent. 50 of 1956, s. 26.

163.(1) Where a receiving order or an order of adjudication is made in Kenya against a debtor or bankrupt having property situated in a reciprocating territory and where, under the provisions of this Act, the property of the debtor or bankrupt is administered by or vested in the official receiver or a trustee of or appointed in Kenya, the official receiver or trustee and any interim receiver or special manager appointed in pursuance of this Act shall take all such steps as may be lawful in any reciprocating territory for the proper administration of any property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in that territory, and at his discretion and without further authority shall request in the prescribed manner any bankruptcy official in that territory empowered in that behalf to act as his agent either generally or for any specific purpose, and shall give such directions and publish such notices and do all such things in the reciprocating territory as may be lawful for the administration of the estate.

(2) Unless for any reason the contrary intention is expressed, every request sent to a bankruptcy official in a reciprocating territory requiring him to act as an agent under subsection (1) shall contain a consent that he may assign the powers and duties vested in him as agent to his deputy or any officer ordinarily authorized to act for him in the reciprocating territory.

(3) Where, in any proceedings mentioned in subsection (1), the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee has completed and despatched to a reciprocating territory a request to a bankruptcy official therein to act as his agent, and where the circumstances of the case so require, he may request the bankruptcy official in the reciprocating territory by telegram or otherwise to act as agent until such time as the prescribed request arrives in the ordinary course of post, provided that he undertakes to indemnify the bankruptcy official against any costs, charges and expenses which the latter may incur in acting as agent.

Power to make rules under this Part. 50 of 1956, s.27.

164.(1) The Chief Justice may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect all or any of the objects of this Part, and in addition and for that purpose may make rules extending or varying the time limited under this Act or any rules made under section 122 for the doing of any act of taking any proceeding, in so far as that limitation of time affects persons ordinarily resident or carrying on business in a reciprocating territory who are or may be interested in any bankruptcy proceedings in Kenya against a debtor having property in the reciprocating territory:

Provided that no rules made under the powers conferred by this subsection shall come into force until the Chief Justice by notice in the Gazette declares himself satisfied that the rule-making authorities in all reciprocating territories have made rules having the same effect within their respective territories.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the court may in respect of any particular matter exercise its general powers of extension of time under subsection (4) of section 104 in favour of a person ordinarily residing or carrying on business in a reciprocating territory who is interested in bankruptcy proceedings instituted in Kenya against a debtor having property in the reciprocating territory.

	FIRST SCHEDULE (s. 15)
First meeting of creditors. 50 of 1956, 8. 28. Subsequent meetings. Chairman.	MEETINGS OF CREDITORS
Voting.	1. The first meeting of creditors shall be summoned for a day not later than sixty days after the date of the receiving order, unless the court for any special reason deems it expedient that the meeting be summoned for a later day.
Trustee may redeem security.	2. The official receiver shall summon the meeting by giving not less than six clear days' notice of the time and place thereof in the Gazette.
Firms. Power of chairman.	3. The official receiver shall also, as soon as practicable, send to each creditor mentioned in the debtor's statement of affairs a notice of the time and place of the first meeting of creditors, accompanied by a summary of the debtor's statement of affairs, including the cause of his failure, and any observations thereon which the official receiver may think fit to make; but the proceedings at the first meeting shall not be invalidated by reason of any such notice or summary not having been sent or received before the meeting.
Proxies.
Adjournment.
Quorum.	4. The meeting shall be held at such place as is in the opinion of the official receiver most convenient for the majority of the creditors.
	5. The official receiver or the trustee may at any time summon a meeting of creditors, and shall do so whenever so directed by the court or so requested by a creditor in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
Minutes.
Proxy-holders not to vote on certain resolutions.	6. Meetings subsequent to the first meeting shall be summoned by sending notice of the time and place thereof to each creditor at the address given in his proof, or, if he has not proved, at the address given in the debtor's statement of affairs, or at such other address as may be known to the person summoning the meeting.
	7. The official receiver, or some person nominated by him, shall be the chairman at the first meeting; and the chairman at subsequent meetings shall be such person as the meeting by resolution appoints.
	8. A person shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor at the first or any other meeting of creditors unless he has duly proved a debt provable in bankruptcy to be due to him from the debtor and the proof has been duly lodged before the time appointed for the meeting.
	9. A creditor shall not vote at any such meeting in respect of any unliquidated or contingent debt, or any debt the value of which is not ascertained.
	10. For the purpose of voting, a secured creditor shall, unless he surrenders his security, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) due to him after deducting the value of his security; and if he votes in respect of his whole debt he shall be deemed to have surrendered his security, unless the court on application is satisfied that the omission to value his security has arisen from inadvertence.

11. A creditor shall not vote in respect of any debt on or secured by a current bill of exchange or promissory note held by him, unless he is willing to treat the liability to him thereon of every person who is liable thereon antecedently to the debtor and against whom a receiving order has not been made as a security in his hands, and to estimate the value thereof, and for the purposes of voting but not for the purposes of dividend to deduct it from his proof.

12. The trustee or the official receiver may, within twenty-eight days after a proof estimating the value of a security has been made use of in voting at any meeting, require the creditor to give up the security for the benefit of the creditors generally on payment of the value so estimated with an addition thereto of twenty per centum:

Provided that, where a creditor has put a value on the security, he may, at any time before he has been required to give up the security, correct the valuation by a new proof and deduct the new value from his debt, but in that case the addition of twenty per centum shall not be made if the trustee requires the security to be given up.

13. If a receiving order is made against one partner of a firm, any creditor to whom that partner is indebted jointly with the other partners of the firm, or any of them, may prove his debt for the purpose of voting at any meeting of creditors, and shall be entitled to vote thereat.

14. The chairman of a meeting may admit or reject a proof for the purpose of voting, but his decision shall be subject to appeal to the court; and if he is in doubt whether the proof of a creditor should be admitted or rejected he shall mark the proof as objected to, and shall allow the creditor to vote, subject to the vote being declared invalid in the event of the objection being sustained.

15. A creditor may vote either in person or by proxy.

16. Every instrument of proxy shall be in the prescribed form, and shall be issued by the official receiver of the debtor's estate or by any deputy official receiver, or, after the appointment of a trustee, by the trustee, and every insertion therein shall be in the handwriting of the person giving the proxy, or of any manager or clerk, or other person in his regular employment or of any person authorized to administer oaths in the court

17. General and special forms of proxy shall be sent to the creditors, together with a notice summoning a meeting of creditors, and neither the name nor the description of the official receiver or of any other person shall be printed or inserted in the body of any instrument of proxy before it is so sent.

18. A creditor may give a general proxy to his manager or clerk, or any other person in his regular employment; and in that case the instrument of proxy shall state the relation in which the person to act thereunder stands to the creditor.

19. A creditor may give a special proxy to any person to vote at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof on all or any of the following matters—

(a) for or against any specific proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement;

(b) for or against the appointment of any specified person as trustee at a specified rate of remuneration or as member of the committee of inspection, or for or against the continuance in office of any specified person as trustee or member of a committee of inspection;

(c) on all questions relating to any matter, other than those above referred to, arising at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof.

20. A proxy shall not be used unless it is deposited with the official receiver or trustee before the meeting at which it is to be used.

21. Where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that any solicitation has been used by or on behalf of a trustee or receiver in obtaining proxies, or in procuring the trusteeship or receivership, except by the direction of a meeting of creditors, the court may order that no remuneration shall be allowed to the person by whom or on whose behalf the solicitation may have been exercised, notwithstanding any resolution of the committee of inspection or of the creditors to the contrary.

22. A creditor may appoint the official receiver to act in manner prescribed as his general or special proxy.

23. The chairman of a meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

24. Except as provided in paragraph 25, a meeting shall not be competent to act for any purpose, except the election of a chairman. the proving of debts and the adjournment of the meeting, unless there are present, or represented thereat, at least three creditors, or all the creditors if their number does not exceed three.

25. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of creditors is not present or represented, the meeting may be adjourned to such other day as the chairman may appoint, being not less than three nor more than twenty-one days later, or if the creditors present so resolve, or if no resolution other than that electing a chairman is passed, the meeting shall be concluded.

26. The chairman of every meeting shall cause minutes of the proceedings at the meeting to be drawn up and fairly entered in a book kept for that purpose, and the minutes shall be signed by him or by the chairman of the next ensuing meeting.

27. No person acting under either a general or a special proxy shall vote in favour of any resolution which would directly or indirectly place himself or his partner or employer in a position to receive any remuneration out of the estate of the debtor otherwise than as a creditor rateably with the other creditors of the debtor:

Provided that where any person holds special proxies to vote for the appointment of himself as trustee he may use the proxies and vote accordingly.

28. The vote of the trustee, or of his partner, clerk, advocate or advocate's clerk, either as creditor or as proxy for a creditor, shall not

	be reckoned in the majority required for passing any resolution affecting the remuneration or conduct of the trustee.

	PROOF OF DEBTS
Proof of debts in ordinary cases	Proof in Ordinary Cases
Inspection of proofs by creditors	1. Every creditor shall prove his debt as soon as may be after the making of a receiving order.
Deduction of trade discounts	2. A debt may be proved by delivering or sending through the post in a prepaid letter to the official receiver or, if a trustee has been appointed, to the trustee an affidavit verifying the debt.
Proof by secured creditors;	3. The affidavit may be made by the creditor himself, or by some person authorized by or on behalf of the creditor; and if made by a person so authorized it shall state his authority and means of knowledge.
Assessment of security.	4. The affidavit shall contain or refer to a statement of account showing the particulars of the debt, and shall specify the vouchers, if any, by which they can be substantiated; and the official receiver or trustee may at any time call for the production of the vouchers.
Redemption of security.	5. The affidavit shall state whether the creditor is or is not a secured creditor, and, if it is found at any time that the affidavit made by or on behalf of a secured creditor has omitted to state that he is a secured creditor, the secured creditor shall surrender his security to the official receiver or trustee for the general benefit of the creditors, unless the court on application is satisfied that the omission has arisen from inadvertence, and in that case the court may allow the affidavit to be amended upon such terms as to the repayment of any dividends or otherwise as the court may consider to be just.
Amendment of assessment.	6. A creditor shall bear the cost of proving his debt, unless the court otherwise specially orders.
Proof in respect of distinct contracts.	7. Every creditor who has lodged a proof shall be entitled to see and examine the proofs of other creditors before the first meeting, and at all reasonable times.
Rent and other periodical payments.	8. A creditor proving his debt shall deduct therefrom all trade discounts, but he shall not be compelled to deduct any discount, not exceeding five per centum on the net amount of his claim, which he may have agreed to allow for payment in cash.
Interest where it is not agreed for.	Proof by Secured Creditors
Future debts.	9. If a secured creditor realizes his security, he may prove for the balance due to him, after deducting the net amount realized.
Admission or rejection of proofs.	10. If a secured creditor surrenders his security to the official receiver or trustee for the general benefit of the creditors, he may prove for his whole debt.
Appeal.	11. If a secured creditor does not either realize or surrender his security, he shall, before ranking for dividend, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to receive a dividend only in respect of the balance due to him after deducting the value so assessed.

12. Where a security is so valued—

(a) the trustee may at any time redeem it on payment to the creditor of the assessed value;

(b) if the trustee is dissatisfied with the value assessed, he may require that the property comprised in the security be offered for sale at such times and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the creditor and the trustee, or as, in default of such agreement, the court may direct; and if the sale is by public auction, the creditor, or the trustee on behalf of the estate, may bid or purchase:

Provided that the creditor may at any time, by notice in writing, require the trustee to elect whether he will or will not exercise his power of redeeming the security or requiring it to be realized, and, if the trustee does not within six months after receiving the notice signify in writing to the creditor his election to exercise the power, he shall not be entitled to exercise it; and the equity of redemption, or any other interest in the property comprised in the security which is vested in the trustee, shall vest in the creditor, and the amount of his debt shall be reduced by the amount at which the security has been valued.

13. Where a creditor has so valued his security, he may at any time amend the valuation and proof on showing to the satisfaction of the trustee or the court that the valuation and proof were made bona fide on a mistaken estimate or that the security has diminished or increased in value since its previous valuation; but every such amendment shall be made at the cost of the creditor, and upon such terms as the court shall order, unless the trustee allows the amendment without application to the court.

14. Where a valuation has been amended in accordance with paragraph 13, the creditor shall forthwith repay any surplus dividend which he may have received in excess of that to which he would have been entitled on the amended valuation, or, as the case may be, shall be entitled to be paid out of any money for the time being available for dividend any dividend or share of dividend which he may have failed to receive by reason of the inaccuracy of the original valuation, before that money is made applicable to the payment of any future dividend, but he shall not be entitled to disturb the distribution of any dividend declared before the date of the amendment.

15. If a creditor after having valued his security subsequently realizes it, or if it is realized under the provisions of paragraph 12, the net amount realized shall be substituted for the amount of any valuation previously made by the creditor and shall be treated in all respects as an amended valuation made by the creditor.

16. If a secured creditor does not comply with the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, he shall be excluded from all share in any dividend.

17. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 12, a creditor shall in no case receive more than twenty shillings in the pound and interest as provided by this Act.

Proof in Respect of Distinct Contracts

18. If a debtor was, at the date of the receiving order, liable in respect of distinct contracts as a member of two or more distinct firms, or as a sole contractor and also as a member of a firm, the circumstances that the firms are in whole or in part composed of the same individuals, or that the sole contractor is also one of the joint contractors, shall not prevent proof in respect of the contracts against the properties respectively liable on the contracts.

Periodical Payments

19. When any rent or other payment falls due at stated times, and the receiving order is made at any time other than one of those times, the persons entitled to the rent or payment may prove for a proportionate part thereof up to the date of the order as if the rent or payment accrued due from day to day.

Interest

20. On any debt or sum certain payable at a certain time or otherwise whereon interest is not reserved or agreed for and which is overdue at the date of the receiving order and provable in bankruptcy, the creditor may prove for interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum to the date of the order from the time when the debt or sum was payable, if the debt or sum is payable by virtue of a written instrument at a certain time, or, if payable otherwise, then from the time when a demand in writing has been made giving the debtor notice that interest will be claimed from the date of the demand until the time of payment.

Debt Payable at a Future Time

21. A creditor may prove for a debt not payable when the debtor committed an act of bankruptcy as if it were payable presently, and may receive dividends equally with the other creditors, deducting only thereout a rebate of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum computed from the declaration of a dividend to the time when the debt would have become payable, according to the terms on which it was contracted.

Admission or Rejection of Proofs

22. The trustee shall examine every proof and the grounds of the debt and in writing admit or reject it, in whole or in part, or require further evidence in support of it; and if he rejects a proof he shall state in writing to the creditor the grounds of the rejection.

23. If the trustee thinks that a proof has been improperly admitted, the court may, on the application of the trustee, after notice to the creditor who made the proof, expunge the proof or reduce its amount.

24. If a creditor is dissatisfied with the decision of the trustee in respect of a proof, the court may, on the application of the creditor, reserve or vary the decision.

25. The court may also expunge or reduce a proof upon the application of a creditor if the trustee declines to interfere in the matter, or, in the case of a composition or scheme, upon the application of the debtor.

26. For the purpose of any of his duties in relation to proofs, the trustee may administer oaths and take affidavits.

27. The official receiver, before the appointment of a trustee, shall have all the powers of a trustee with respect to the examination, admission and rejection of proofs, and any act or decision of his in relation thereto shall be subject to appeal in the same way.

Rules under section 164

Cap. 30
(1948),
Sub. Leg.
L.N.141/1962.

THE BANKRUPTCY (RECIPROCITY) RULES

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. These Rules may be cited as the Bankruptcy (Reciprocity) Rules.

2. In these Rules "controlling court" means the reciprocating court (not being a court of Kenya) under the jurisdiction of which any proceedings in bankruptcy against a debtor having property in Kenya are administered or managed within Kenya under Part IX of the Act.

PART 11—PROCEEDINGS

3. (1) Every proceeding in a court of Kenya under the Act against a debtor having property situated in one or more reciprocating territories shall be entitled "In Bankruptcy—Reciprocal Jurisdiction".

(2) If a proceeding has been instituted against a debtor under the title "In Bankruptcy" in pursuance of rule 7 of the Bankruptcy Rules, and subsequently there is reason to believe that the debtor has property in one or more reciprocating territories, the receiver or trustee may apply to the court for the title of the proceedings to be amended to read "In Bankruptcy—Reciprocal Jurisdiction".

(3) The words "Reciprocal Jurisdiction" shall not be included in or added to the title of any proceedings unless the court is satisfied by affidavit that the debtor has or is reasonably believed to have property situated in one or more reciprocating territories and unless a sum of fifty shillings is deposited with the receiver trustee in addition to any sum deposited under rule 108 of the Bankruptcy Rule.

4. Where any proceedings are taken or documents are filed in a court of Kenya relating to a bankruptcy within the jurisdiction of a controlling court, the proceedings and documents shall be given the title "In Bankruptcy" followed by the style of the controlling court, the territory in which it is situated and the distinctive number of the bankruptcy cause used by that court in respect of the bankruptcy cause to which the proceedings or documents relate.

5. Where the title "In Bankruptcy" or "In Bankruptcy Reciprocal Jurisdiction" has been given to any proceedings in pursuance of rule 7 of the Bankruptcy Rules or rule 3 of these Rules, and the court subsequently annuls the adjudication, rescinds its receiving order or dismisses the petition under subsection (2) of section 162 of the Act, the title and number of the proceedings shall thereupon be amended to read "In Bankruptcy" followed by the style of the controlling court, the territory in which it is situated and the distinctive number of the bankruptcy cause in the register of the controlling court.

Supra

6. (1) Any application to the court to dismiss a petition, rescind a receiving order or annul an adjudication under subsection (2) of section 162 of the Act, or for a vesting or administration order under subsection (3) of that section, shall be supported by certified or duly authenticated copies of all relevant orders made in the matter by any reciprocating court or courts together with an affidavit setting out the relevant facts; and notice of any such application shall be served on the official receiver or other person administering the estate at the date of application, and at the hearing of such application the court may require further evidence to be adduced before it concerning the matter.

(2) Where the property of a debtor is being administered by or is vested in a trustee, receiver or special manager of Kenya and, in consequence of an order made on any such application, the property of the debtor ceases to be so vested or administered, the court shall require the trustee, receiver or manager to hand over and account for it to the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee appointed by the controlling court and may order that the property shall first be handed over and accounted for to the Official Receiver of Kenya.

(3) Any order under subsection (2) of section 162 of the Act shall be in forms A and B in the Schedule to these Rules, and may in the discretion of the registrar be published in the Gazette.

PART III—LOCAL OFFICIAL RECEIVER ACTING AS AGENT FOR A TRUSTEE OR RECEIVER OF A RECIPROCATING TERRITORY

7. (1 In pursuance of subsection (1) of section 156 of the Act the official receiver shall act as agent for an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating territory in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor or bankrupt having property in Kenya upon the receipt of a request in form C in the Schedule to these Rules; and every such request shall be sent in triplicate and shall be accompanied by—

(a) a deposit of one hundred shillings against the cost of court fees and the expenses of advertising notices:

(b) if the request is made by—

(i) the official or interim receiver—

(a) two sealed copies of the interim or receiving order, as the case may be; and

(b) two sealed copies of the order of adjudication (if made):

(ii) the special manager—

(a) two sealed copies of the interim or receiving order, as the case may be; and

(b) two certified copies of his letter of appointment;

(iii) the trustee—

(a) two sealed copies of the receiving order; and

(b) two sealed copies of the order of adjudication; and

(c) two sealed copies of the order or certificate appointing him trustee;

(c) a detailed list of the value, nature and situation of the property of the debtor or bankrupt in or believed to be in Kenya;

(d) all available documents of title and other evidence of the interest which the debtor or bankrupt has in the property;

(e) warrants of seizure (if any) issued by the controlling court for the attachment or seizure of such property belonging to the debtor or bankrupt in Kenya as is sufficiently traced or identified;

(f) such other information as will assist the local official receiver in tracing and recovering the property of the debtor or bankrupt; and

(g) a list of the names of the creditors of the debtor or bankrupt who are known to be in Kenya with such information as is available regarding their whereabouts:

Provided that if the documents and information referred to in subparagraphs (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) are not available for transmission with the request the documents and information shall be sent as soon as they are available.

(2) Upon the receipt of the prescribed request, the official receiver shall forthwith file the original request or an authenticated copy thereof with the Registrar of the High Court and in addition a copy of each of the relevant documents specified in subparagraph (6) of paragraph (1).

8. In any case where an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating territory desires the official receiver to apply to the court of Kenya for authority to act as agent before the publication of the request under subsection (3) of section 156 of the Act, he shall give to the official receiver by telegram such information as may enable him to satisfy the court that the requirements specified in paragraphs (a), (6) and (c) of that subsection have been complied with, and shall inform the official receiver what properly is to be seized or other action is to be taken under the provisional authority conferred by the court.

9. (1) From time to time the official receiver may require the person for whom he is acting as agent to send to him a certified copy of—

- (a) any proceedings in the bankruptcy cause before the controlling court;
- (b) any orders made by that court;
- (c) the record of the public examination;
- (d) the debtor's statement of affairs; and
- (c) any proof of debt filed by the creditors.

(2) All copies so sent shall be filed in the official receiver's office and shall be open to the inspection of any creditor who has lodged a proof against the estate to which they relate at all reasonable times subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed by the official receiver.

(3) The official receiver shall also keep an official copy of all laws and regulations relating to bankruptcy in force in each reciprocating territory, and the copy shall be open to the inspection at all reasonable times free of charge of any creditor or other person interested in any bankruptcy estate.

10. The official receiver shall require the person for whom he is acting as agent to send to him from time to time a copy of all advertisements relating to the estate published in the reciprocating territory and shall cause them to be published in the Gazette.

11. (1) The official receiver acting as agent shall receive all proofs of debts filed with him in pursuance of section 158 of the Act, and shall endorse upon each proof the date on which it is received by him.

(2) Any proof so filed with him shall for all purposes be deemed to be filed with the receiver or trustee appointed or approved by the controlling court.

(3) The official receiver shall then examine, admit, reject or otherwise deal with the proofs in such manner as he is authorized to do by the person for whom he is acting, and shall thereafter as soon as possible transmit the proofs of debts to that person with a memorandum showing the action taken in respect of each proof.

PART IV—PROCEEDINGS IN A RECIPROCATING TERRITORY CONTROLLED BY THE RECEIVER OR TRUSTEE APPOINTED BY THE COURT OF KENYA

12. In any case where the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee appointed in Kenya requires the official receiver of a reciprocating territory to act as his agent, he shall take all necessary steps in that behalf by conforming with the requirements of the law enacted and provided for that purpose in the reciprocating territory.

13. An official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee appointed in Kenya may delegate to the official receiver of any reciprocating territory who is acting as his agent all or any of his powers or duties within the reciprocating territory, and on the appointment or delegation being made the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee shall send to the Registrar of the High Court a signed copy of the request to act as agent and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice of the appointment and of the powers delegated.

PART V—GENERAL

19. In so far as they are applicable and are not inconsistent with these Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules shall be applicable to all proceedings in reciprocity controlled by the courts of Kenya.

20. Where by the Act or the Bankruptcy Rules any limited time from or after any date or event is appointed or allowed for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceedings, then in reciprocity proceedings, in so far as that limitation of time affects persons ordinarily resident or carrying on business in a reciprocating territory who are or may be interested in any bankruptcy proceedings in Kenya against a debtor having property in the reciprocating territory (unless the court having jurisdiction in the matter shall otherwise order), all time limited shall be deemed to be extended by the undermentioned periods in respect of the several reciprocating territories mentioned—

Tanzania add 4 weeks;

Uganda add 3 weeks.
